SENIOR CLASS
of
BRADFORD HIGH SCHOOL

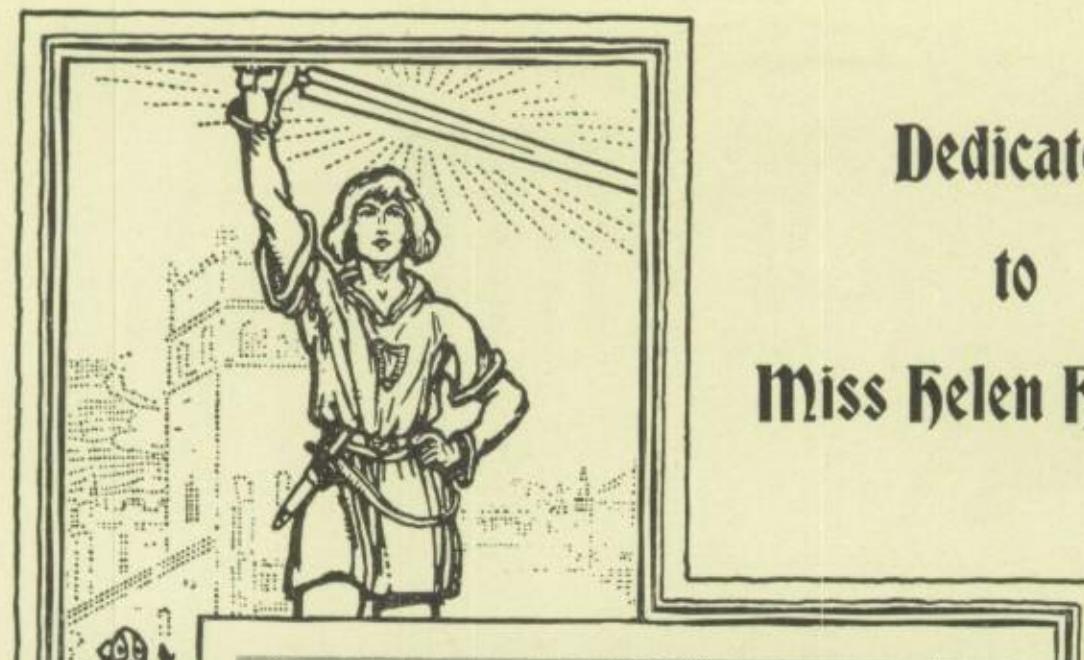

Our School

*F*N 1925 the Senior High School moved up on Interstate Parkway into its lovely new home. For many years it had occupied the old Red Brick on School Street, but, like a growing child's shoe, it at last became crowded, out of style, and rather worn out, so the City of Bradford, noting these facts, built a new roomy, fully equipped, modern high school.

It is situated on the edge of the city where there is plenty of sunshine, fresh air and room. The fine athletic field and track at the rear of the building together with the up-to-the-minute gym develops the best athletic ability of the students and makes sports an outstanding feature in their school life.

Two courts in the center of the building furnish light for the wide corridors and large assembly room. A large cafeteria and library, both well equipped, are the main features of the second floor—the Seniors are on the first floor.

Mr. Schilling reigns supreme over all this great "domain" with a brainy crew of assistants who mould our minds into ones of great wisdom and understanding. The office, on the right as one enters the building, is his "rendezvous," into which parents and friends are always welcome. If you haven't been through our building, come up sometime and someone will show you around.

Dedicated to
Miss Helen Hastings

To whom we owe a gift of gratitude for her kind understanding and ability to "stand by" when odds were against us, and for her sound advice and friendliness which helped to bring about our success as Seniors and leaders in B. H. S.----

History of the Class of '31

The day after Labor Day in 1928 one might have seen a great number of people walking dazedly around the halls of Bradford High School. Yes, you have guessed it. They were the Sophomores, the Class of 1931. The place was so strange to us that more than one person started at Room 22 and walked all the way around the back and side halls to get to Room 30. Don't laugh all of you were Sophomores once.

Having spent the first few weeks getting adjusted we got down to the problem of electing officers of our class. The favored ones were President Max Warren, Vice President George Wilcox, Secretary Jeannette Simonsen, and Treasurer Donald Stewart. Miss Le Van was elected adviser. The constitution was very ably drawn up by a committee headed by Christine Bauer.

From the very first we considered ways and means of raising money for the far distant Washington Trip. We sold candy at the football games, sold magazines and Christmas cards, had cooked food sales and won various prizes. The finals proved a very convenient way to end our first year at Bradford High School.

The next Fall we returned as Juniors. After meeting all our old friends and telling the exciting things that happened during vacation we elected our officers for 1929-30. Those elected were George Wilcox, president; Max Warren, vice president; Jeannette Simonsen, secretary; and Jane Paton, treasurer. Miss Hastings consented to be our adviser.

Again this year we earned money for our Washington Trip by selling candy, magazines, soap powder, and Christmas cards. At one time we thought all of our time spent earning money was going to be wasted. This blow came when the School Board decided that there were to be no more Washington Trips. However, we didn't lose all hope and sure enough the dark cloud passed away when the School Board rescinded their action. We cooperated with the Seniors in carrying out the plan of the Student Council. In the Junior Assembly we presented two plays entitled, "His Best Seller" and "Polly's Hero." Later "Tumble Inn" was played for the benefit of the Washington Trip fund. We very creditably finished our second year in B. H. S. by holding the Junior Prom.

In September of 1930 we entered our last year of high school. The officers of the previous year were re-elected to pilot us on this last scholastic voyage. Jack Zillafro was chosen president of the Student Council.

We started a campaign to collect old papers, magazines, etc. This proved profitable for a while but the selling price of paper went too low to warrant the bother of gathering it. The candy sales at the football games were also a source of revenue. The operetta and the Bucknell Glee Club helped to increase our treasury. It is February 12th. The confusion of red and white streamers, step ladders, pins, etc., in the gym seem to say Bazaar. The electric light wires and the booths in the halls very plainly speak Bazaar. The word Bazaar is on everybody's tongue. It was a great success both financially and socially. It was held in the High School for the first time and proved at least an equal to those held in the Armory. "The Importance of Being Earnest" was the title of the Senior play presented by the Class of 1931. This was another success for the Seniors. At last the Washington Trip. One goal has been attained.

In the athletic hall of fame the Class of '31 leaves George Wilcox, Jack Zillafro, George Dillman, Glenn Witchen, Warner Whitney, Harry Scully, Dave Hartburg, Max Warren, Vance Kohler, and Sam Figler. In the dramatic hall of fame are Christine Bauer, Ronald Aldrich, John Bryner, Cleva Frampton, Lillian Hull, Jeannette Reichenbach, Frank Pecora, Bob Hannum, Charles Stokes, Ruth Douthit, and Jack Zillafro.

The finals are a thing of the past and our last goal is just around the corner. To most of us graduation means more than simply getting a diploma. It means more than the end of three years of hard work. It means the culmination of three happy years spent in Bradford High School. As we leave our Alma Mater we feel that we are both taking something with us and leaving something behind which we will never experience again.

DUANE DENNIS.

Class Prophecy, 1931

No one can convince me that there is not magic in moonlight — magic enough to change a very wise person into an exceedingly foolish one; else why did I on a certain May night when the moon was full, eat a piece of lemon pie, also a cheese sandwich before bidding the world good-night? The results of such recklessness proved disastrous as might have been expected. O Seniors! My dreams of you that May night!

At first all was confusion — men and women were crowding their way into seats in a large room. There was a sound of many voices, then the crash of a gavel and the familiar, "O, hear Ye, O, hear Ye," rang out in George Dillman's lusty voice.

The court came to order. The jury consisting of Thelma Hane, Veda Cotton, Irene Crump, Milla Crandall, Jennie Crattie, Estelle Edgett, Isabel Fraser, Maurice Fox, Margaret Freeman, Leola Fultz, Dora Arthurs, and Eva Ballard filed into their places. The first case called was that of the Count of Custer City, John Bryner, accused of violating every known law under the vehicle code. The first witness against him was Myril Binger who charged him with running down her pet dog. The next witness was Patrolman Fred Bishop, who charged the defendant with crashing two red lights within ten minutes. Next were three witnesses Maxine Double, Emily Lucco, and Susan Maltby who accused him with splashing their evening gowns with muddy water.

The next case was State versus John Capinjola. The defendant was charged with "Disturbing the Peace" by carrying two open umbrellas down Main Street on a cloudless day. Witnesses for the State were Ethel King, who keeps a bakery at 503 Main; Glenn Humphrey, "Electrical Supplies" at 505 Main and his two clerks Audrey Johnston and Juanita Keen.

Following this was the case of Lawrence Davidson haled into court for the fourth time for his persistent joke in secreting ladies' purses. The plaintiffs were Evelyn Curtis, Romayne Matteson, Alice Mayo, Mildred Lowes, and Ruth Kautz.

After a fruitless defense by their attorneys, Sam Figler, Jean Edwards, and Duane Dennis, Judge Rae Whitney pronounced sentence of ten days each on the diet of prunes and spinach. At a small table sat June Finch taking court notes for the "Bradford Oilwell Daily" owned by Frank Pecora.

Court was adjourned and immediately two tall newsboys, who seemed to be Edward McDevitt and Harry Scully, began calling their papers. I bought a paper and took the bus for Bradford. The next thing I remember was the bus stopping at Coleville for gas at the service station of Glenn Witchen and his wife, Cleva.

As we climbed the hill, I opened my paper and the first black headlines which caught my eye were these: Miriam Wiles, Viola Wilcox, Arlene Seeley have completed their world flight in their new monoplane, "Skybird." Also, and a special to the "Daily," The Smithsonian Research Party looking for Dinosaur eggs is reported lost in the Arabian desert. The party included the following members of the class of '31. Bertha Buchanan, Luella Bunker, Velva Boyd, Caroline Bennett, Effie Berger, Jean Jack, Laura Jones, Kathryn Jordan, Leo Lane, and Vance Kohler.

Down in a corner I found this startling announcement: Doctor Robert Hannum has completed his first successful operation in five years. Peace to the victims of his earlier practice!

Reading a little further I found these items: Reba Berry and Joe Costello have returned to their duties as high school teachers in Mexico City. Bruce McKittrick, the Nation's matinee idol will be in Bradford in person on May twenty-ninth. Word has been received that Mary Jane Hamilton has been awarded the title of "Miss America" in a National Beauty Contest. The President of the Bradford Branch of National Airmen, Cyril Remington, announces that the following aces will take part in the coming pageant in Bradford: Julia Campogiani, Helen Hackett, Maudlene Griffin, June Hess, David Johnson, Maybelle Harlan, Kent Ludwig, George Harden, Donald Ives, and Robert Moore.

I turned to the editorials of my paper and found these names: Manager, Charles Stokes; Society Editor, Alice Woodin; Advertising Editor, Margaret Woodley; Reporter from Song Bird, Alberta Willis; Reporter from Gifford, Berthabelle Reigel.

On the opposite page of classified ads were a few familiar names: Doctor Joseph Roggenbaum, Veterinary. Harriet Ingram offers a new and better facial cream. Mary Sorrentino, Art Instructor — Special Classes, 119 Main. Free demonstration of the Gerald Leonard Steam Engine. Tuesdays and Thursdays. Donald Sundahl, New Beauty Parlor. Experienced assistants: Bessie Swatsler, marcelling; Leola Sweeney, facials; Lucy Vecilio, finger waving; Mildred Seyfang, manicuring; Henrietta Stiefel, eyebrow arching; Pauline Stromberg, face lifting, a specialty.

Among the "Personals" was this item: Rosamond Glass and Pearl Larson left on the 9:20 Rocket this morning for an extended visit in Mars with Frances Johnson, Julia Lawry and Jane Paton, formerly of Bradford.

As the bus rolled through Sawyer City, I saw Charles Bogardus still wearily hiking to Rew. It seemed but a minute till we were passing down Main Street in Bradford and I saw these words inscribed on a door, "L. Bernice Allen, Attorney at Law." Just then there came a wild clanging of a gong and a fire truck shot past us with Chief Ronald Aldrich, and his trusty smoke eaters William Hahn, LeRoy Halbert, Wardloe Wilcox, Mose Yampolski, Richard Hall, George Wilcox, Robert Morris, and Charles Hall.

"Where is the fire?" I asked.

Someone answered, "The Cafeteria of Irma Boosinger, Flo Rankin, and Jennie Pace."

"Well," I decided, "Irma will be sure of her 40c lunch now with a Cafeteria of her own."

Bradford faded from my view and I found myself running down a street in a little town. There seemed to be a terrible commotion on a corner. I was amazed to see our staid LaVerne Harris perched on a soap box acclaiming his Socialistic principles. Even as I looked, Officer William O'Day plucked him from his box.

"Serves him right," muttered a voice and I turned to see Philip Goldwater standing in front of his little shop where he does a flourishing business collecting old funny papers in the charming village of Limestone. "Here is something else," he added turning the dial on his radio. "It's just 8:20. Now listen." This is what the announcer said: "National Broadcasting Company, New York. We present a talk this evening by Max Warren, Governor of New York State." Following Max' oration I heard a speech by Billy McCutcheon, leader of the Republican National Party.

He turned the dial again. This time from Station O-I-L, Bradford, Pennsylvania, and we heard the Kendall Hour with Ruth Hunt, Helen Odell, Jeannette Reichenbach, Jeannette Simonsen, and Margaret Sargent as entertainers. Then from Station K-D-K-A floated the beautiful strains of a violin. The music died away. "You have been listening to a violin solo by Madame Schubert. Doris Anderson announcing."

I was about to go away when Cora Bonham stepped up beside me. "Wait!" she said, "they are going to have an exhibition of the latest improvement in television." In a minute the picture was before us. It was a scene on the Nile River. A large motor boat was "put-putting" down the stream taking pictures for the National Geographic Magazine. I leaned forward with interest as the faces of Peggy Sage, Homer Trantor, Ralph Taylor, Wilhelmina Bartlebaugh, Christine Bauer, and Bella Yampolski came into view. In a flash that picture was gone and we saw another with a group of ten persons clinging to a rope struggling up a cliff in an attempt to scale Mt. Everest. They were Wallace Warner, May Yampolski, Marjorie Hullihen, Marjorie Warner, Jennie Hoxie, Elizabeth Whelan, Mable McBride, George Hemphill, and Lillian Hull. We held our breath as they started to creep over a big boulder. That picture, too, faded and we seemed to be in a quiet, softly-lighted room lined with books and magazine racks.

"May I help you?" asked the librarian.

"Why, hello, Carrie Moore," we said, "Show us what you have in new books."

"Here," she said, pointing to a shelf, "are the latest authors and very proud we should be of them. Look at these, 'Social Service' by Winifred O'Meara, 'Tomorrow' by Virginia Hubbard, 'Bee Culture' by Martha Newell, and that isn't all. Vivien Greenberg and Betty Yerdon are writing for the 'Literary Digest' and Bessie Redmond is writing for 'The Saturday Evening Post.'"

Idly we turned the pages of the "Digest" till we came to the picture of a group of men and women standing beside a caged lioness. It read thus: "Big game hunters bag feliness for Washington Zoo. They are William Taylor, John Stromberg, Marian Widrig, Helen Bentley, Lenora Wilson, Mildred O'Neil, James Park, Maurice Crump, and Elizabeth Ottoson. The keeper of the Zoo, Jack Zillafro, is pictured on the right."

The lights blurred and went out and Cora and I seemed running through snow drifts pursued by an angry lemon pie. We were about to climb a huge pole to escape when we fell through the roof of a snow house and landed among a group of disgusted looking people. "My word!" said I, "Warner Whitney, Russel Davis, Byron Rhodes, what are you doing here?"

"The submarine 'Nautalis' landed us here five years ago," said Bryon. "We're up here at the North Pole making the weather. But it's a thankless task. We can't please our big chief, Margaret Read, at Washington."

"Well! It is wretched weather you have made all winter," said Cora, and we made a flying retreat.

The next thing I remembered was passing a millinery shop of Marie Cunningham and Ruth Douthit. They looked at us queerly but did not speak. Then I saw in a window a card which read, "$500 reward offered for the capture of Cora Bonham and Roberta Beach. Class of 1931 brings libel suit." We turned to run but Detective Carl Williamson stepped out from the doorway and said, "You are under arrest. Anything you say will be used against you at the trial." I struggled wildly and awoke with a gasp. No more midnight lunches!

By CORA BONHAM AND
ROBERTA BEACH, '31.

Class Will

We, the Class of 1931 being of full age and entitled to a diploma of graduation, do hereby make, publish, and declare this to be our last will and testament.

Item I. To the Faculty we extend our sincerest gratitude for their inspiration and encouragement which helped us to graduate.

Item. II. To our advisers, Mr. Schilling and Miss Hastings, we bequeath our heartiest wishes for success.

Item III. To the Juniors we leave a guarantee that they will become as good Seniors as we have tried to be.

Item IV. To the Sophomore Class we leave hopes for the Washington Trip.

Item V. To "Norm" Rathfon we leave our sympathy for all the "cleaning up" he had to do because of our carelessness.

Item VI. To Mrs. Moore the Seniors wish to entrust their Wicker-sham Reports.

Item VII. The individuals of our class wish to leave a few articles in remembrance.

1. George Wilcox leaves his ability for leadership to Herb Peterson.
2. To Mrs. Merrit, Mose Yampolski leaves his grapefruit, for something to remember him by.
3. June Finch and Effie Berger bequeath their Senior Essays to Gertrude Rubin and Helen Nusbaum.
4. Arline Rhed receives Audrey Johnston's ever present compact.
5. John Bryner leaves his rosy cheeks to Paul Barber.
6. William Hahn bequeaths his clarinet to Arthur Yasgur and Sam Thomas for use in the "Rythm Artists" orchestra.
7. Charles Stokes leaves his a's to Frank Bailey.
8. Marie Cunningham and Wardie Wilcox leave for Rixford in Marie's car.
9. Jeannette Simonsen leaves her facial beauty to Dorothy Shelgren.
10. George Harden wills his shoes to Merrill Davis. I hope they fit you, Sonny.
11. La Verne Harris leaves his intelligent look to Dave Wood.
12. Peggy Sage, Isabel Fraser, Jean Jack, and Mildred Seyfang will their companionship to Jean Stoner, Jane Stover, Ethel Chamberlain, and Blanche Andrews.
13. Julia Campogiani bequeaths her typewriter to Eunice Miller.
14. Marjory Hullihen and Harriet Ingram leave John Milton to the Juniors.
15. Mary Sorrentino wills her ability to draw posters to Dorothy Dunham.
16. Jane Paton leaves the Senior money to the Juniors. Remember Juniors, a little goes a long way.
17. Philip Goldwater leaves the Debating Society to Norma Middaugh.
18. "Pop" Crump, pioneer of B. H. S., sadly leaves school.
19. Mildred O'Neil, Rosamond Glass, Betty Dunne, Juanita Keen, and Ethel King leave their places in Miss Stewart's office to any Juniors who wish to fill them.

20. Bob Hannum leaves many broken-hearted girls. There will never be another Bob.
21. Virginia Hubbard leaves her sophisticated appearance to Lucille Baney.
22. To Fred Rathfon, Frank Pecora bequeaths his Barker.
23. Bruce McKittrick wills his wavy hair to Dick Hermes.
24. Caroline Bennett leaves her quiet ways to Helen Gilmore.

Class Song

By Vivien Greenberg

The three short years so happy
We've spent in Senior High.
And now the time too soon,
Has come to say goodbye.

We have worked, we've played, we've had fun,
And now that we must part,
Our eyes are dim with tears,
A sorrow's in each heart.

Chorus —

Senior High a sad farewell
We now must bid to you,
We'll ne'er forget the days,
Or friends and classmates true.

As swift the years roll by Sweet thoughts will linger on,
And mem'ries never dying
Of days forever gone.

Tune — "When Your Hair Has Turned To Silver."

Class Poem

When school's last day has approached us,
And our books are all closed for a while
When our last marks are recorded,
And our "A's" and "E's" are on file —
We shall rest — and how we shall need it.
Forget all the work we have done,
And wait for the new era of College
To finish the task we've begun.

I think as I muse o'er my school days,
So laden with pure joy were they,
Those beautiful mem'ries shall linger,
Deep down in my heart for aye —
Ah no, they were not years of leisure,
But filled with tasks large and small,
Tasks that were difficult to conquer
But conquered — yes, conquered by all.

We have mastered our English and Spanish
Our P. D. and History are done,
Our essays and outlines are finished
And now we are ready for fun —
But no, not just fun are we seeking,
We are striving to climb to the top
Of the ladder of knowledge and wisdom
And in climbing, we must not stop.

So now, Alma Mater, we bid thee
A solemn "au revoir" and "adieu,"
With a smile through the tears we are leaving
Our teachers, our friends — and you —
We are leaving our castle behind us
But through life we shall always be true
To the red and the white — our colors
To you — Alma Mater — to you.

With Apologies to Kipling's "L'Envoy."

BERNICE ALLEN.

The Bazaar

The crowning event of the Senior year was the Bazaar which was given as a Valentine Ball. It was held at the Senior High School and the lower halls and the booths were most attractively decorated in red and white. The booths were built in many novel shapes; the novelty booth as a boat, the grab bag booth as a large bag, and the ice cream booth as an igloo. The gym, whose decorations carried out the same color scheme, was transformed into a charming ballroom with the orchestra placed behind a great heart-shaped opening on a platform extending out onto the bleachers.

"A Scandal in Hollywood," the play presented by the Girls' Literary Society was a great success. After the play the dancing began and the dance floor was so crowded on both nights that collisions were a frequent happening. The Biology room was effectively altered by tasteful decorations of yellow and black into a dainty tearoom which was filled to repletion after each dance.

The amazing success of the Bazaar was largely due to the splendid supervision of Miss Helen Hastings and the advisers of the various booths. The net profit of $1,100.00 was used by the Senior Class for their Washington Trip.

SENIOR PLAY

Senior Play

The Senior play, "The Importance of Being Earnest," by Oscar Wilde was held in the High School Auditorium on the twenty-sixth and twenty-seventh of March. The play was a wonderful success. The witty jokes in the performance kept the audience in a gale of laughter from the time of the opening curtain to the end of the play. We were told that one of the teachers fell out of her seat during a passionate love scene. The crowd was exceptionally large, and a substantial sum was added to the Washington Trip Fund.

Washington Trip

Upon leaving Bradford on Friday morning the boys took possession of the last car, except the ones who stayed with their girls in the other coaches. The chaperons checked continually from the time we left until the time we arrived back in Bradford. If you don't believe me ask the girls, especially the ones in room 302.

You have heard of the tree sitters, well we have train sitters in our class. Eddie McDevitt and Homer Trantor are the champs. They were not out of their seats but once or twice all the way down. How do you do it, boys?

And, Oh yes, the tunnels — be sure Sophs and Juniors, that you keep the lights on while going through them. We had them lighted in every coach. Ask Philip Goldwater about that.

People try to catch up on their lost sleep on the train, that's what Jane Paton did. In order to secure a nice soft bed she managed to shut her fingers in the door, Moral: "Get plenty of sleep before going to Washington because you won't get much down there."

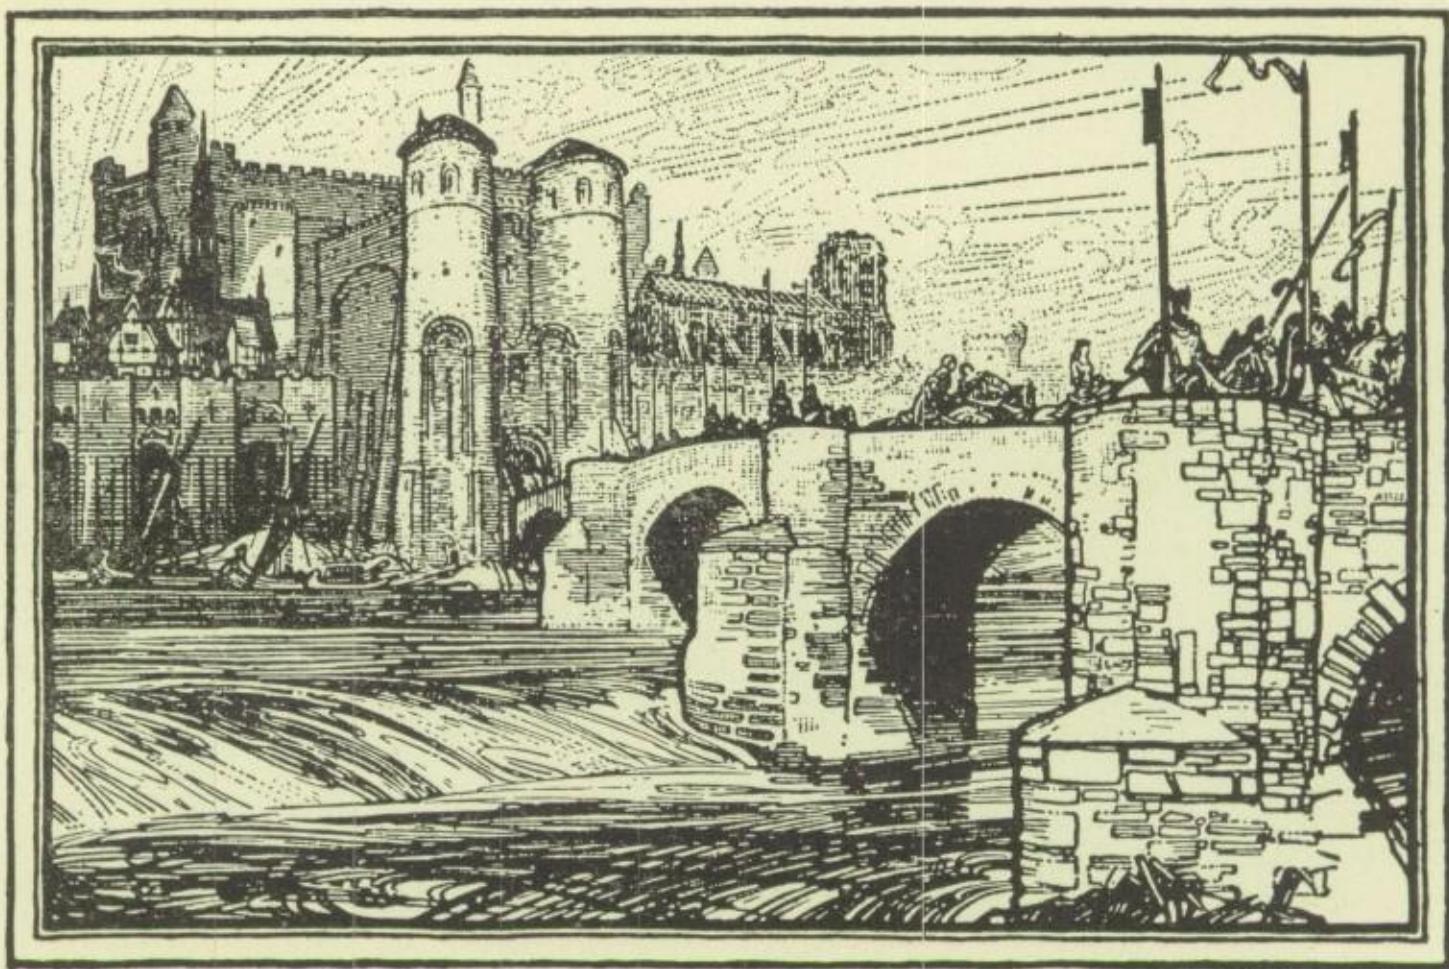

The water battle was exciting, but our dignified deacon didn't see the joke and so started a nice little fight. It was very quiet on the train except for snoring, shouting, and singing. We arrived in Bradford Friday evening, a tired but happy crowd.

Now, let's talk about some of the fundamental values which make this trip worth while. The incentive to greater work and achievement, the school spirit which results from such a co-operative enterprise, the interest which comes from seeing places of national and historic importance, not to mention the experience of living with one's friends and fellows are some of the less obvious results of this trip.

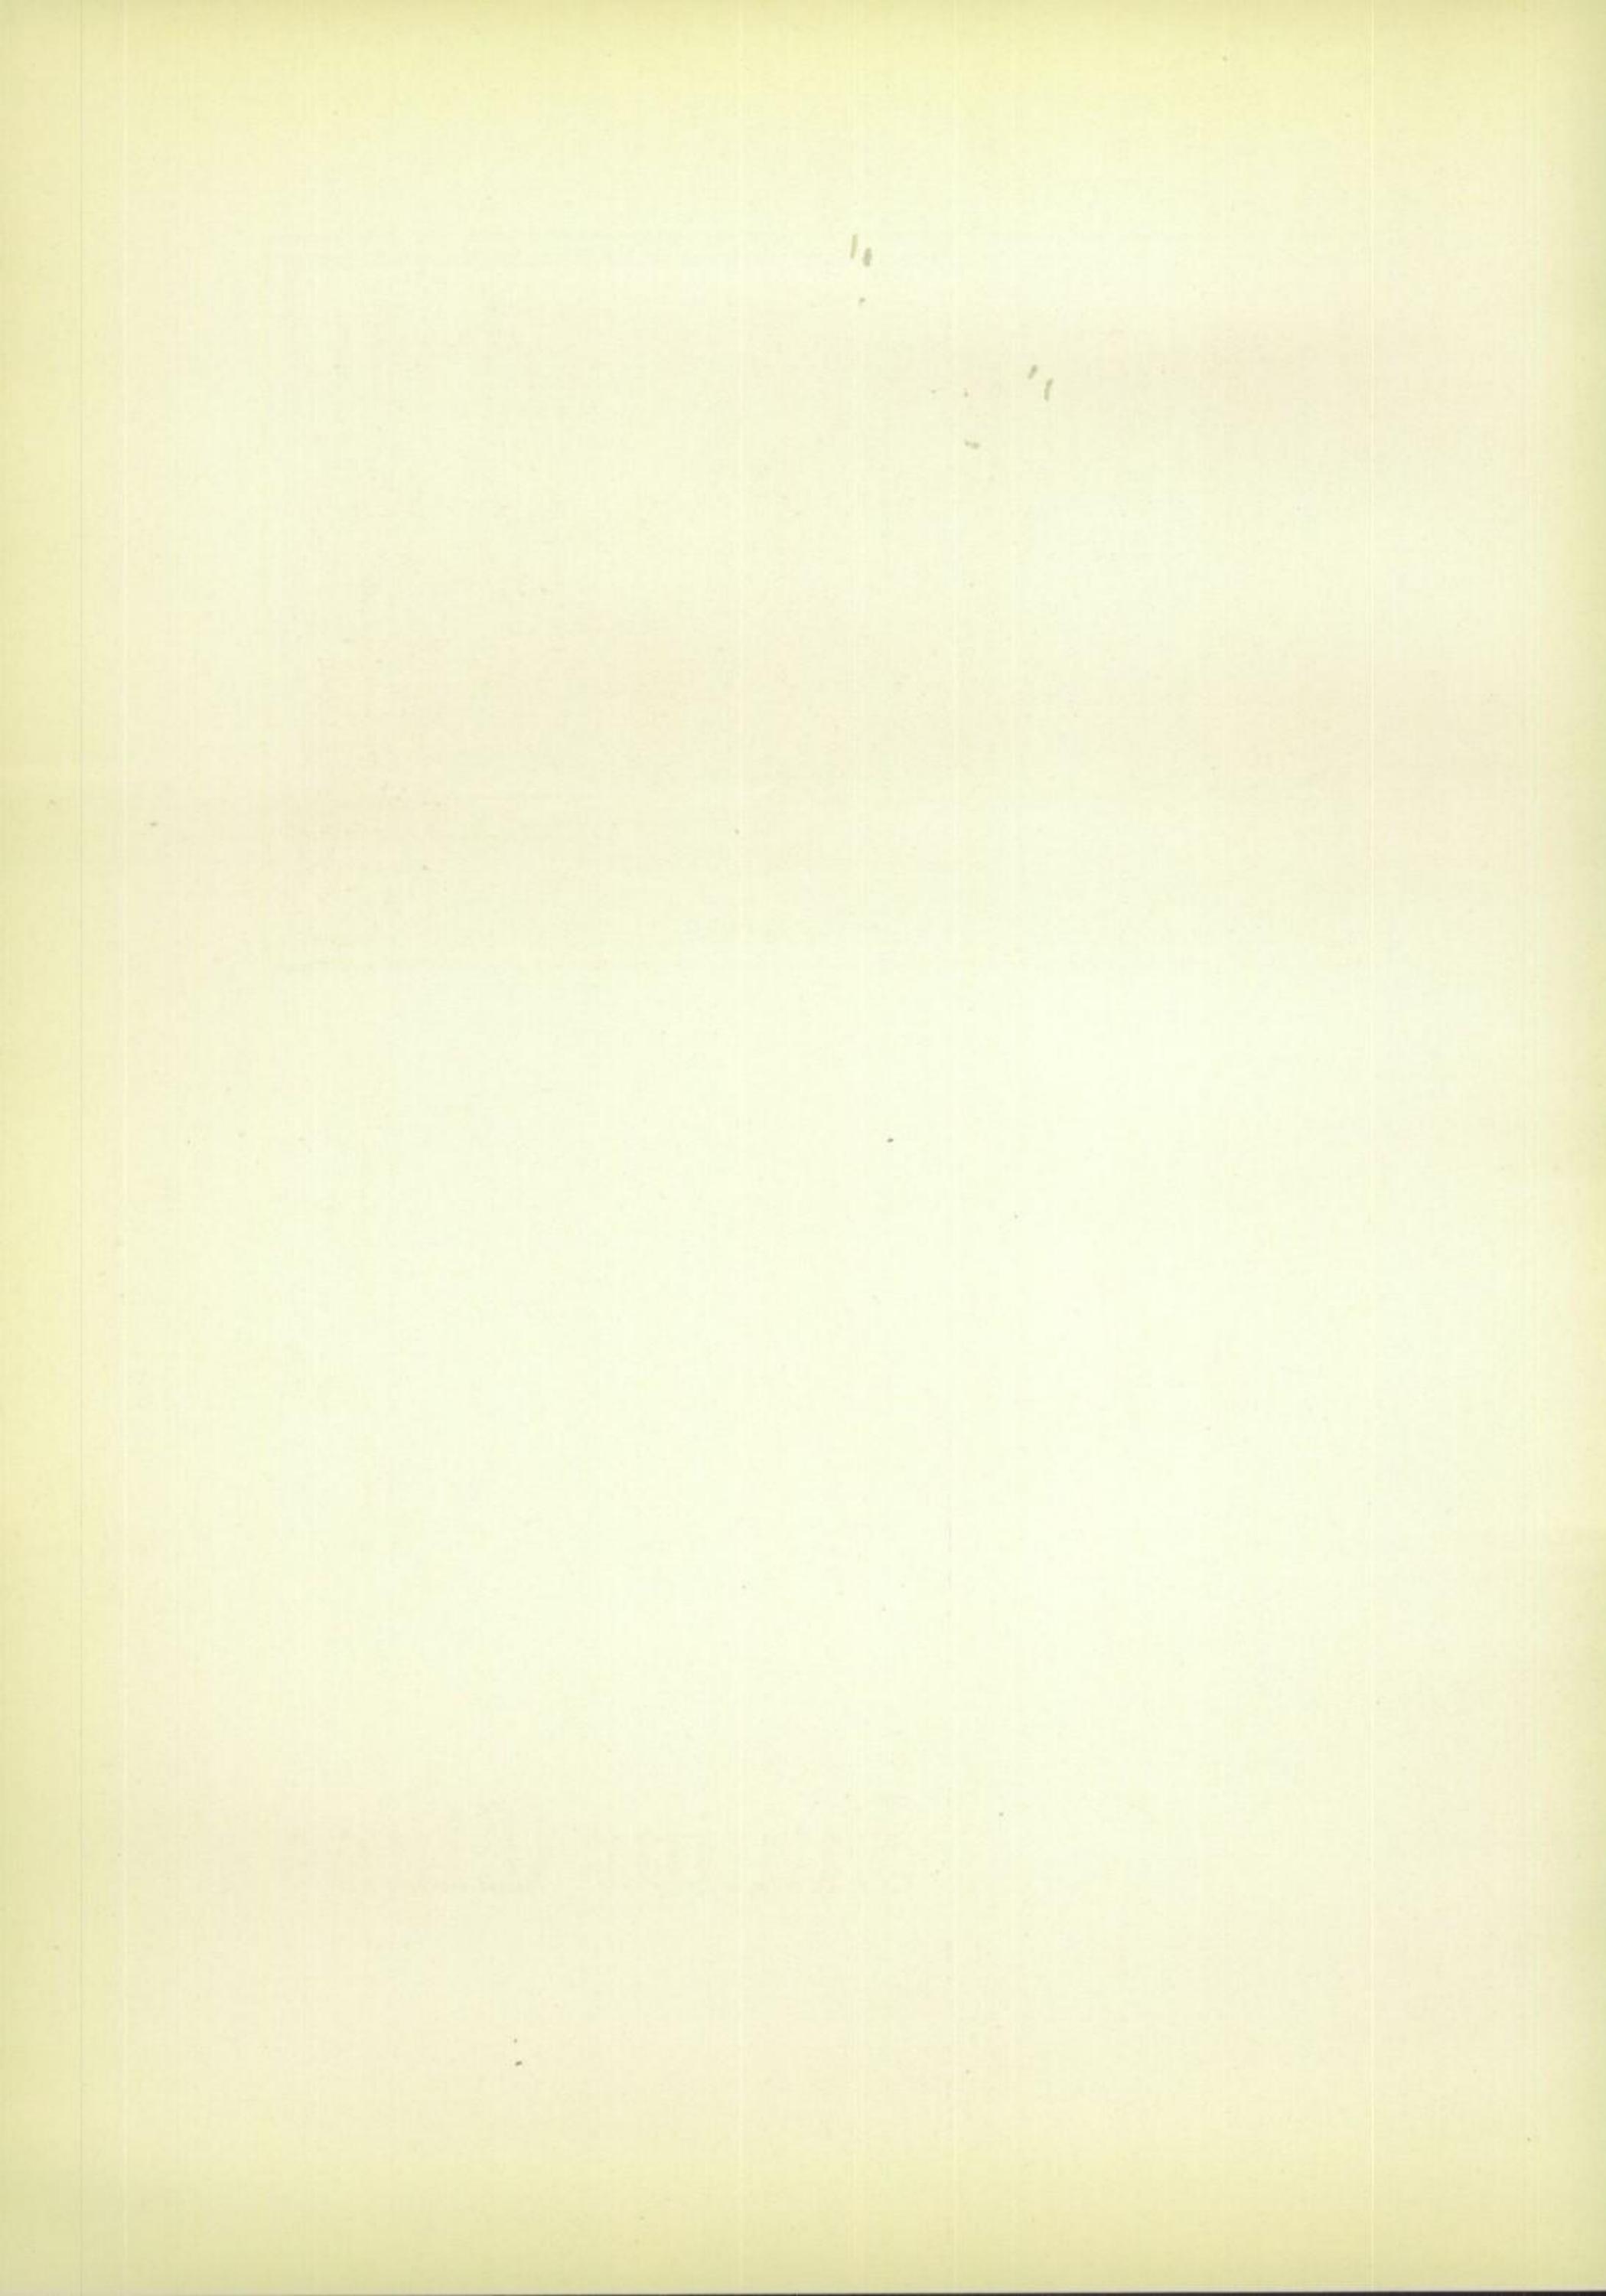

During all your school career you hear about Washington. In the American History and Problems of Democracy classes you read about the Senate and the House, you learn many things about the Capitol. You are inspired to work harder to attain the goal set. The class as a whole struggles to earn enough money to make this trip possible. Its members all work together in planning and carrying out plans for plays and the bazaar.

To see these men and places of such interest gives an aspect of reality to the theory found in school, and fixes them permanently in your mind. Once having seen the Lincoln Memorial you do not forget it, you can not forget it, or once having climbed the Washington Monument you will not fail to remember how straight, tall, and upstanding our first president was, just as the monument is.

For some of the people the journey down on the railroad is their first train trip and is a wonderful experience for them. Others have never been away from home for any length of time at all, and for many this perhaps will be their most enjoyable journey. It is easy to realize the importance of the fun and contacts which come through human experiences on the trip, but it is not so easy to measure the widening outlook which results from seeing new places. To those of us who live in small towns, this is an important factor, and such a trip as this will play a large part in making the members of the graduating class better future citizens of Bradford.

Junior Class

We have come to the end of our Junior year and we look back upon its achievements with a feeling of satisfaction because we think that we have done our job well. We are all planning on the Washington Trip and have made some money for it by giving a Junior Dinner. The dinner was held November 8th in the cafeteria.

We gave a Motion Picture show on May 4th, "The Wonders of the Wilds," another means of raising money for our trip.

The Courant put out by the Junior Class in February was very successful.

Who could forget the Junior Assembly given March 23rd.

The Boys' Quartet composed of William Noxon, Henry Miller, Reynolds Krantz, and Paul Osborne.

A play, "Sunset."

THE CAST

| Joan Jasper..... | Jane Stover |
| Aunt Druscilla..... | Almeda Culbertson |
| Mr. Rivers..... | Jim Moore |
| Azariah Stodd..... | Herbert Peterson |
| Lawrence Leigh..... | Neil Gregory |

The setting took place in England. The story is about two girls who were in love with the same fellow. The parts of the two girls were played very well by Ethel Chamberlain and Jane Stover. The role of the popular suitor was played by Neil Gregory. The rest of the parts were played very capably by the other members of the cast.

The cast for the three act play, "Climbing Roses," has been chosen. This is another means of earning money for the Washington Trip.

THE CAST

The story takes place in the town of Maysville. The Rose family try to get into high society. It turns out that ? ? ?, well you know.

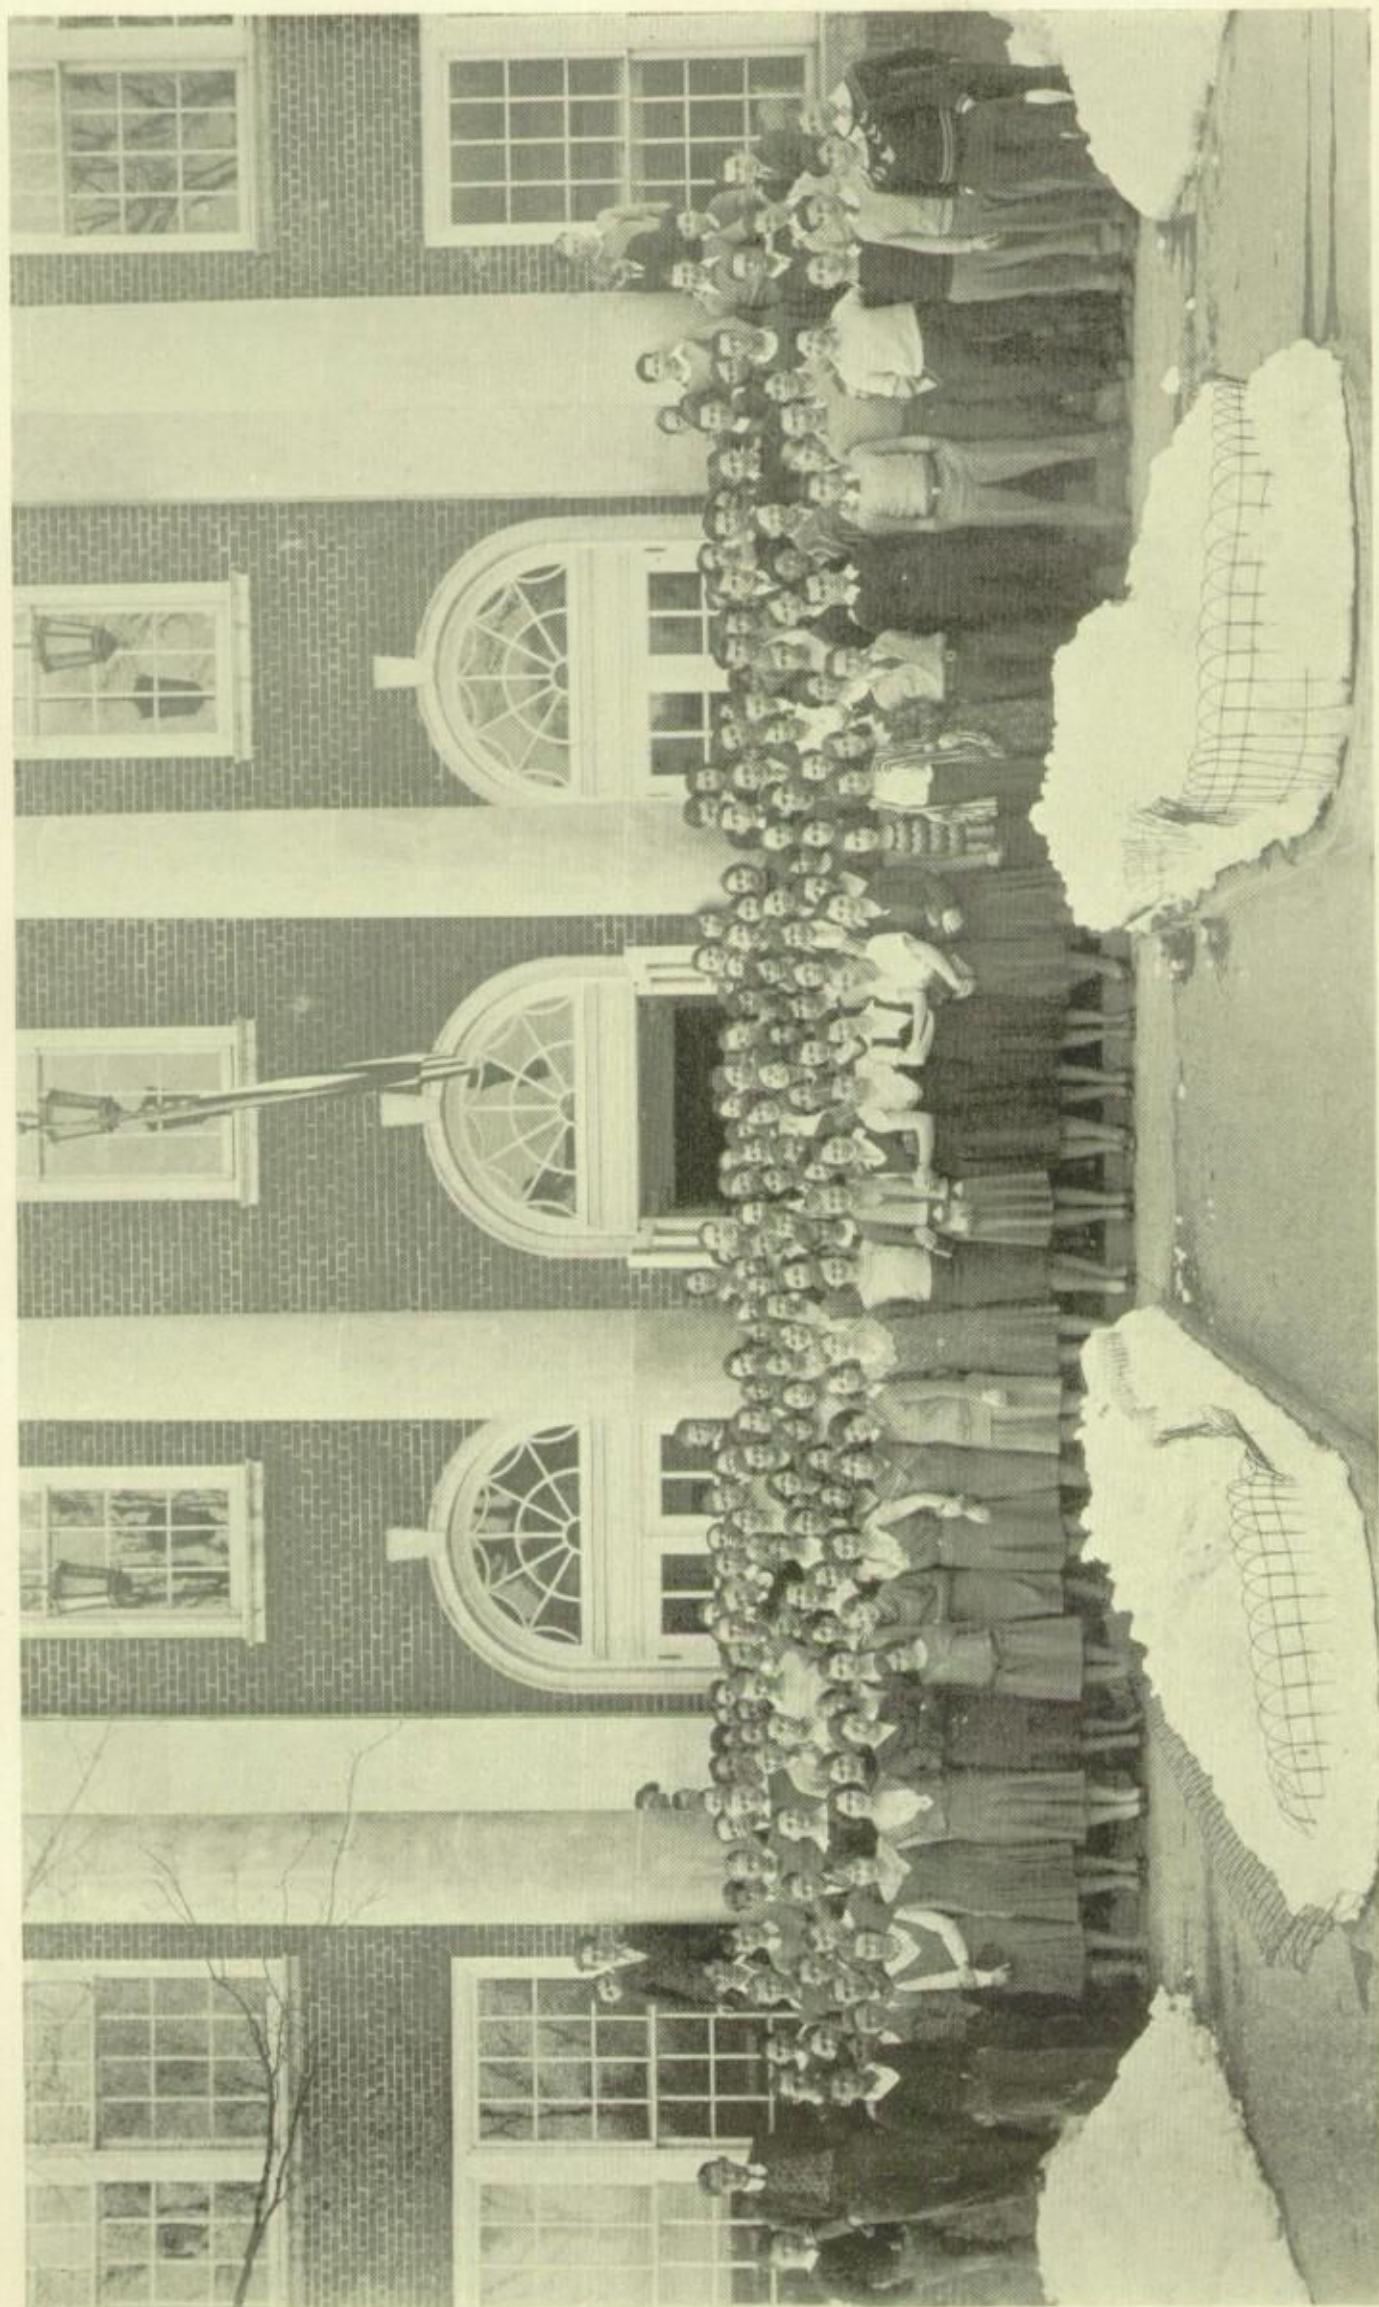

Oh! that Junior Prom — was it a wow! Well, I'll say. We owe the success to every one, but the main ones who should take the bow are:

| | |
|------------------|---------------------|
| Tom Sinclair | General Chairman |
| Fred Rathfon | Dance Chairman |
| Bill Noxon | Decorating Chairman |
| Donna Peebles | Card Chairman |
| Marcia Parkhurst | Punch Chairman |

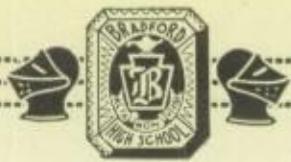

Miss Morrison also should be given praise. She is always on the job when needed.

Sophomore Class

In September of 1930, two hundred and fifty new students entered Senior High School. They started their career with much uncalled vim and vigor, but soon enough they were calmed down by the upper classmen, who were waiting for their opportunity with much longing.

The girls were given the "first degree" by wearing black cotton stockings, green hair-ribbons, and odd shoes. The boys were subjected to similar humiliations, but were also given a little work, such as picking up lose paper around the halls and taking away stones from the athletic field. On one occasion they were given the privilege to obtain boxes or fire wood, so that a monstrous bonfire could be constructed before the Olean game.

At first all this seemed rather degrading, but soon our senses of humor came to our rescue and we enjoyed these tasks, by the thought that some day we would be the "givers" and not the "receivers."

Once organized, the first thought which came to our minds was, making money, for that long looked for Washington trip. We sold football badges during the season and candy at basketball season.

The Sophomore class seemed unusually fortunate in having an army of competent athletes. The Class Football Championship was won by the Class of 1933. We firmly believe that our class will furnish excellent material for future varsity teams.

The last Friday in April brought about our Sophomore Party. This was the first time that any class had ever given a party strictly confined to their class, in the Senior High School. The party turned out to be a great success. Everyone who attended had a great time. Dancing was one of the main features of the party. The music was furnished by the Rythm Artists, an orchestra made up of Sophomores. Games were played and prizes were won by many.

This year the Sophomores believed a standard ring would be much better for the class of 1933 and future classes. Permission was granted the Sophomores by the Student Council, thus it was adopted that beginning with the Class of 1933, all rings are to be the same.

On May 1, 1931, the Sophomore Assembly was given. It was a huge success. A newly formed jazz orchestra rendered several selections, very much liked by the Junior and Senior audience and many visitors. A trio composed of: Richard Tyrell, Gerald Weldy and Gerald Smeigh also sang several songs. The main feature of the Assembly was a play entitled, "Proposal Under Difficulties." This play kept the upper classmen amused in great style and very much appreciated by all.

The cast was composed of the following:

| | |
|-----------------|----------------|
| Dorothy Andrews | Rowena Iverson |
| Bob Yardsley | Tom Johnson |
| Jack Barlow | Charles Simons |
| Jenny | Dortha Withey |

This program plainly showed that the class is full of musical and histrionic talent.

With the help of our most kind adviser, Mrs. E. Fredrickson, we the Class of 1933 have had a most successful and delightful year.

Organizations

Publications Courant and Barker

School life is a preparation for life work. One can get such preparation while working for publications on the Courant and Barker staffs. Many successful journalists and authors look back with pride on the attempts they made while still in school.

B. H. S. publications have a far deeper function than the mere registry of facts. Their pages record all achievements which seem worthy of remembrance.

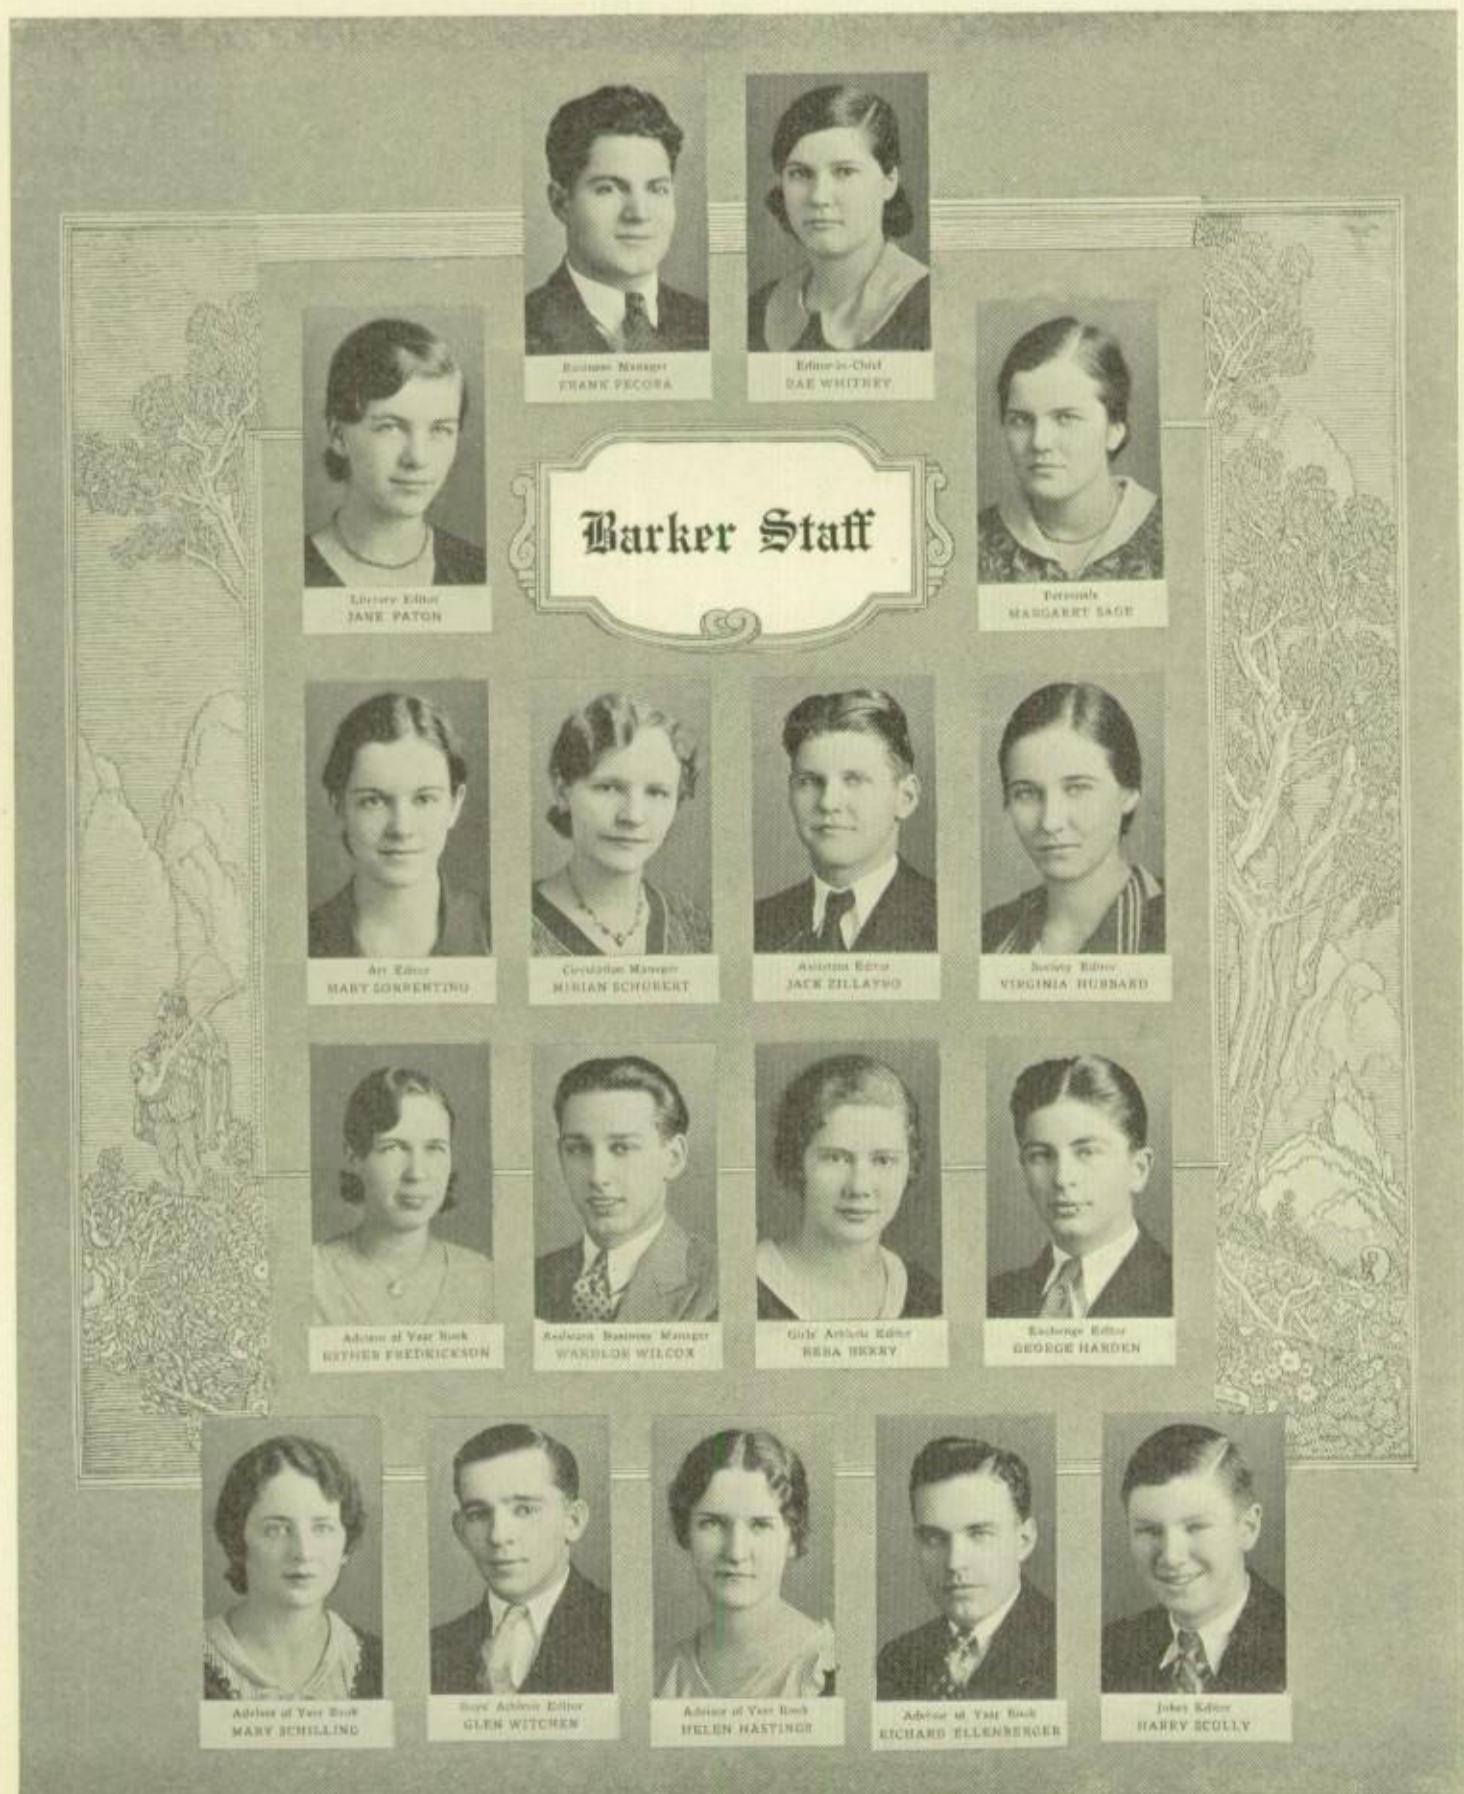

To the advisers of publications, the editorial staffs wish to extend their heartiest thanks and appreciation for services rendered. For what credit the staffs receive, the advisers are to a great extent responsible. It was they who urged us on to a successful finish, giving advice and encouragement whenever our spirits lagged.

Boys' Quartet

For years past the quartet has been a special feature of the Boys' Glee Club. The quartet is anticipating a very successful season. They hope to take first place in the annual contest at Clarion this year, since the members have all had experience. The quartet is the same as last year's. The following boys are the ones who have qualified for this year's book:

|-------------------|-----------------|
| First Tenor..... | Gerald Weldy |
| Second Tenor..... | Harry Offenbach |
| Baritone..... | Dick Tyrrel |
| Bass..... | Leroy Halbert |

GIRLS' GLEE CLUB

Girls' Glee Club

The Girls' Glee Club, under the able leadership of Miss Helen Slone, experienced a most successful year.

Practising was begun right away for the annual Christmas concert, given for the benefit of the Bradford Branch of the American Association of University Women Scholarship Fund and our own Student Activity Fund. The concert was a huge success and many said that it was the best concert ever given.

The girls went Christmas caroling the morning after the concert and all of the faculty were serenaded.

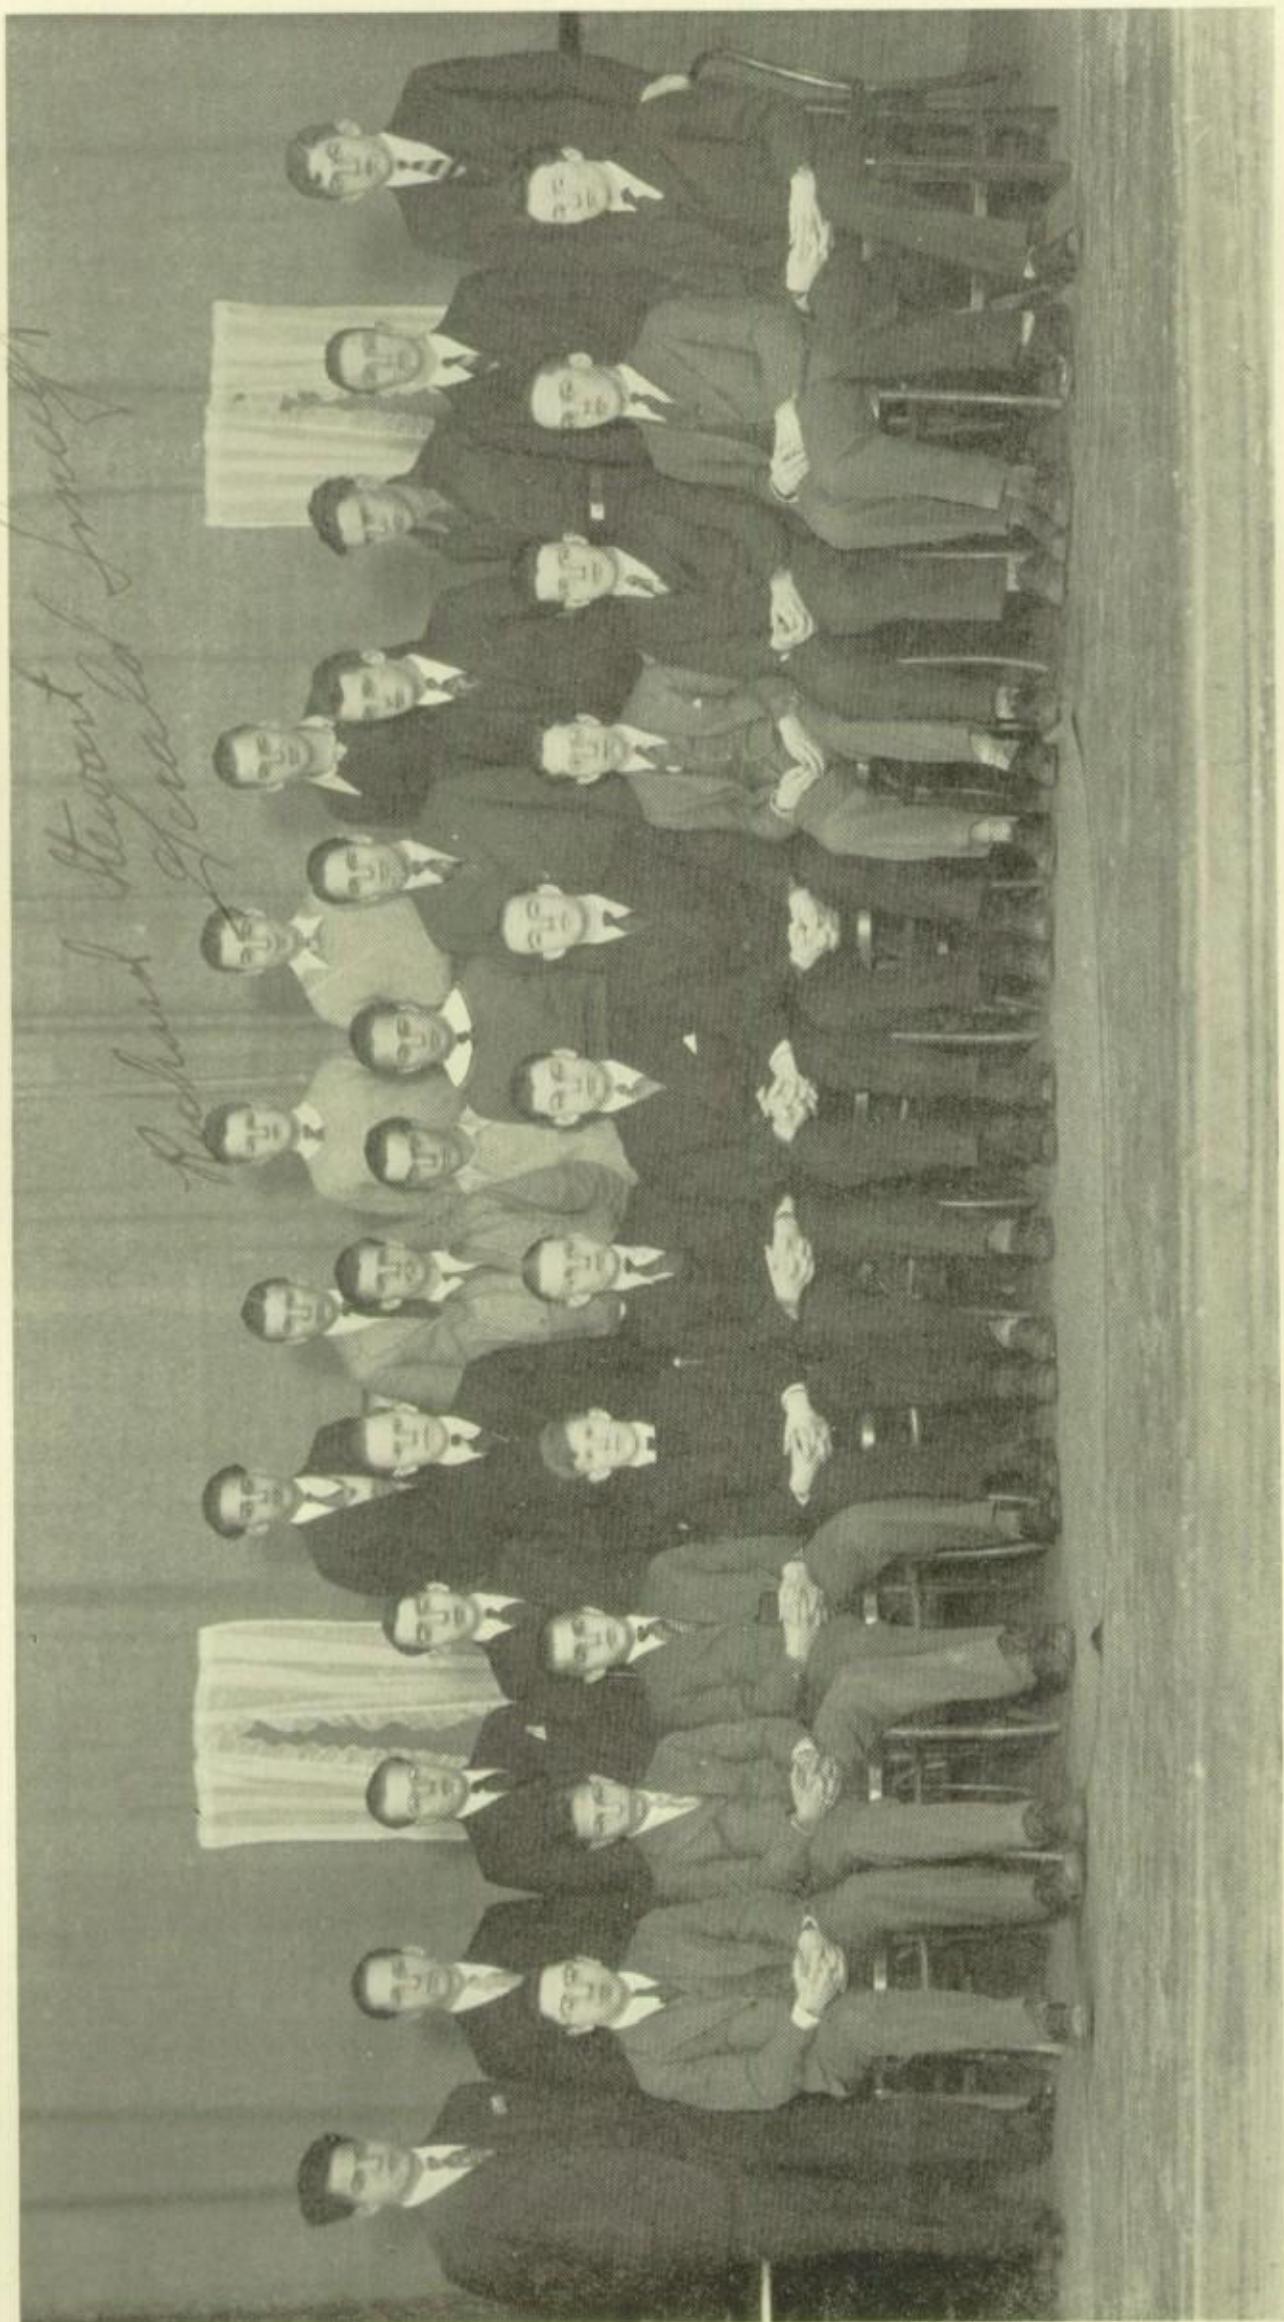

This year, the Glee Club, as usual will go to Clarion to take part in the Annual Musical Contest.

The Clarion Contest

The judges at the Clarion Contest have at last found it impossible to keep us entirely out of the picture. They seem to have finally awakened to acknowledge the talent in Bradford High. They just couldn't help giving us the prizes and even admitted our sole right to the silver loving-cup, the most cherished of all awards.

The awards are as follows:

|------------------------|-------------------------------|
| Piano Solo | Harry Offenbach, First Place |
| Boys' Quartet | First Place |
| First Tenor | Gerald Weldy |
| Second Tenor | Harry Offenbach |
| Baritone | Dick Tyrrel |
| Bass | Leroy Halbert |
| Boys' Glee Club | First Place |
| Violin Solo | Mirian Schubert, Second Place |
| Cornet Solo | Harry Chapman, Second Place |
| Girls' Glee Club | Second Place |
| Soprano Solo | Bernice Benedict, Third Place |
| Girls' Trio | Third Place |
| First Soprano | Bernice Benedict |
| Second Soprano | Ruth Hunt |
| Alto | Marcia Parkhurst |

No one who was not there could imagine the excitement in the Bradford group, when the prizes were announced.

They wish to express the hope that in every year to come there will be cause for just as great excitement when the prizes are announced then.

OPRETTEA

The Operetta

One of the high spots of the year was the colorful operetta, "The Mysterious Master" presented at the Senior High School on January 28th and 29th under the able direction of Mr. Lull, Miss Schilling, and Miss Hastings.

Mystery pervaded the very atmosphere. One could fairly sniff the spookiness in the air. The skeins of suspense became all twisted up and excitement rose higher and higher until the climax was reached, when the entire auditorium was plunged into darkness.

The youthful actors and actresses outdid themselves, and although they were all amateurs, their acting was worthy of professionals.

The costumes were especially good. The girls' chorus was attired successively in tidy maids' uniforms, dashing pirates' costumes, and in pajamas. The boys' chorus donned pastel-colored shades of green and mauve, and in the next act sprouted beards and mustaches of gigantic proportions. The principals were all attired in fitting costumes, also.

DEBATING SOCIETY

Debating Society

The Debating Society of the Bradford Senior High School entered upon its eleventh season in the fall of 1930. Admission to membership was based upon skill in public speaking. Of thirty-five pupils who tried out, twenty were admitted to membership. Weekly meetings were held on Monday. Instruction in the art of debate was given by the adviser and the coach. Open forum discussions and debates on a wide range of subjects were held.

In conjunction with the Society's activities, interscholastic contests were sponsored. Since Pennsylvania schools are rapidly becoming assimilated by the state forensic league, some difficulty in securing debates was experienced. We hope to be represented in that league next year. Our work this year was centered on the question, "Resolved: That the further development of the chain store system would be detrimental to the best interests of the American people." We debated this question with Strong Vincent Senior High School of Erie, debate champions of their city for the past three years, in two contests. In both contests, our teams made a very strong showing and lost by just a few points.

In Bradford, on February 3, the following affirmative team debated Strong Vincent's negative: Norma Middaugh, Philip Goldwater, William Spencer, captain, Lillian Osborne, alternate. On February 6, our negative team composed of: Harry Offenbach, Ruth Hunt, Vivien Greenberg, captain, and Donald Howe, alternate, journeyed to Erie.

Hi-Y Club

Smethport paid a tribute to the Hi-Y Club of Bradford, when the principal of their school made a statement to this effect, "The noticeable improvement in the sportsmanship and fellowship existing between the teams of Section Seven and Bradford might be laid to the influence of Coach Paige's tireless efforts and the Hi-Y Club which has so successfully sponsored Good Fellowship Luncheons after each game." This comment also sums up others received from Coaches and players of all the teams entertained at Bradford during the basketball season of 1930-31.

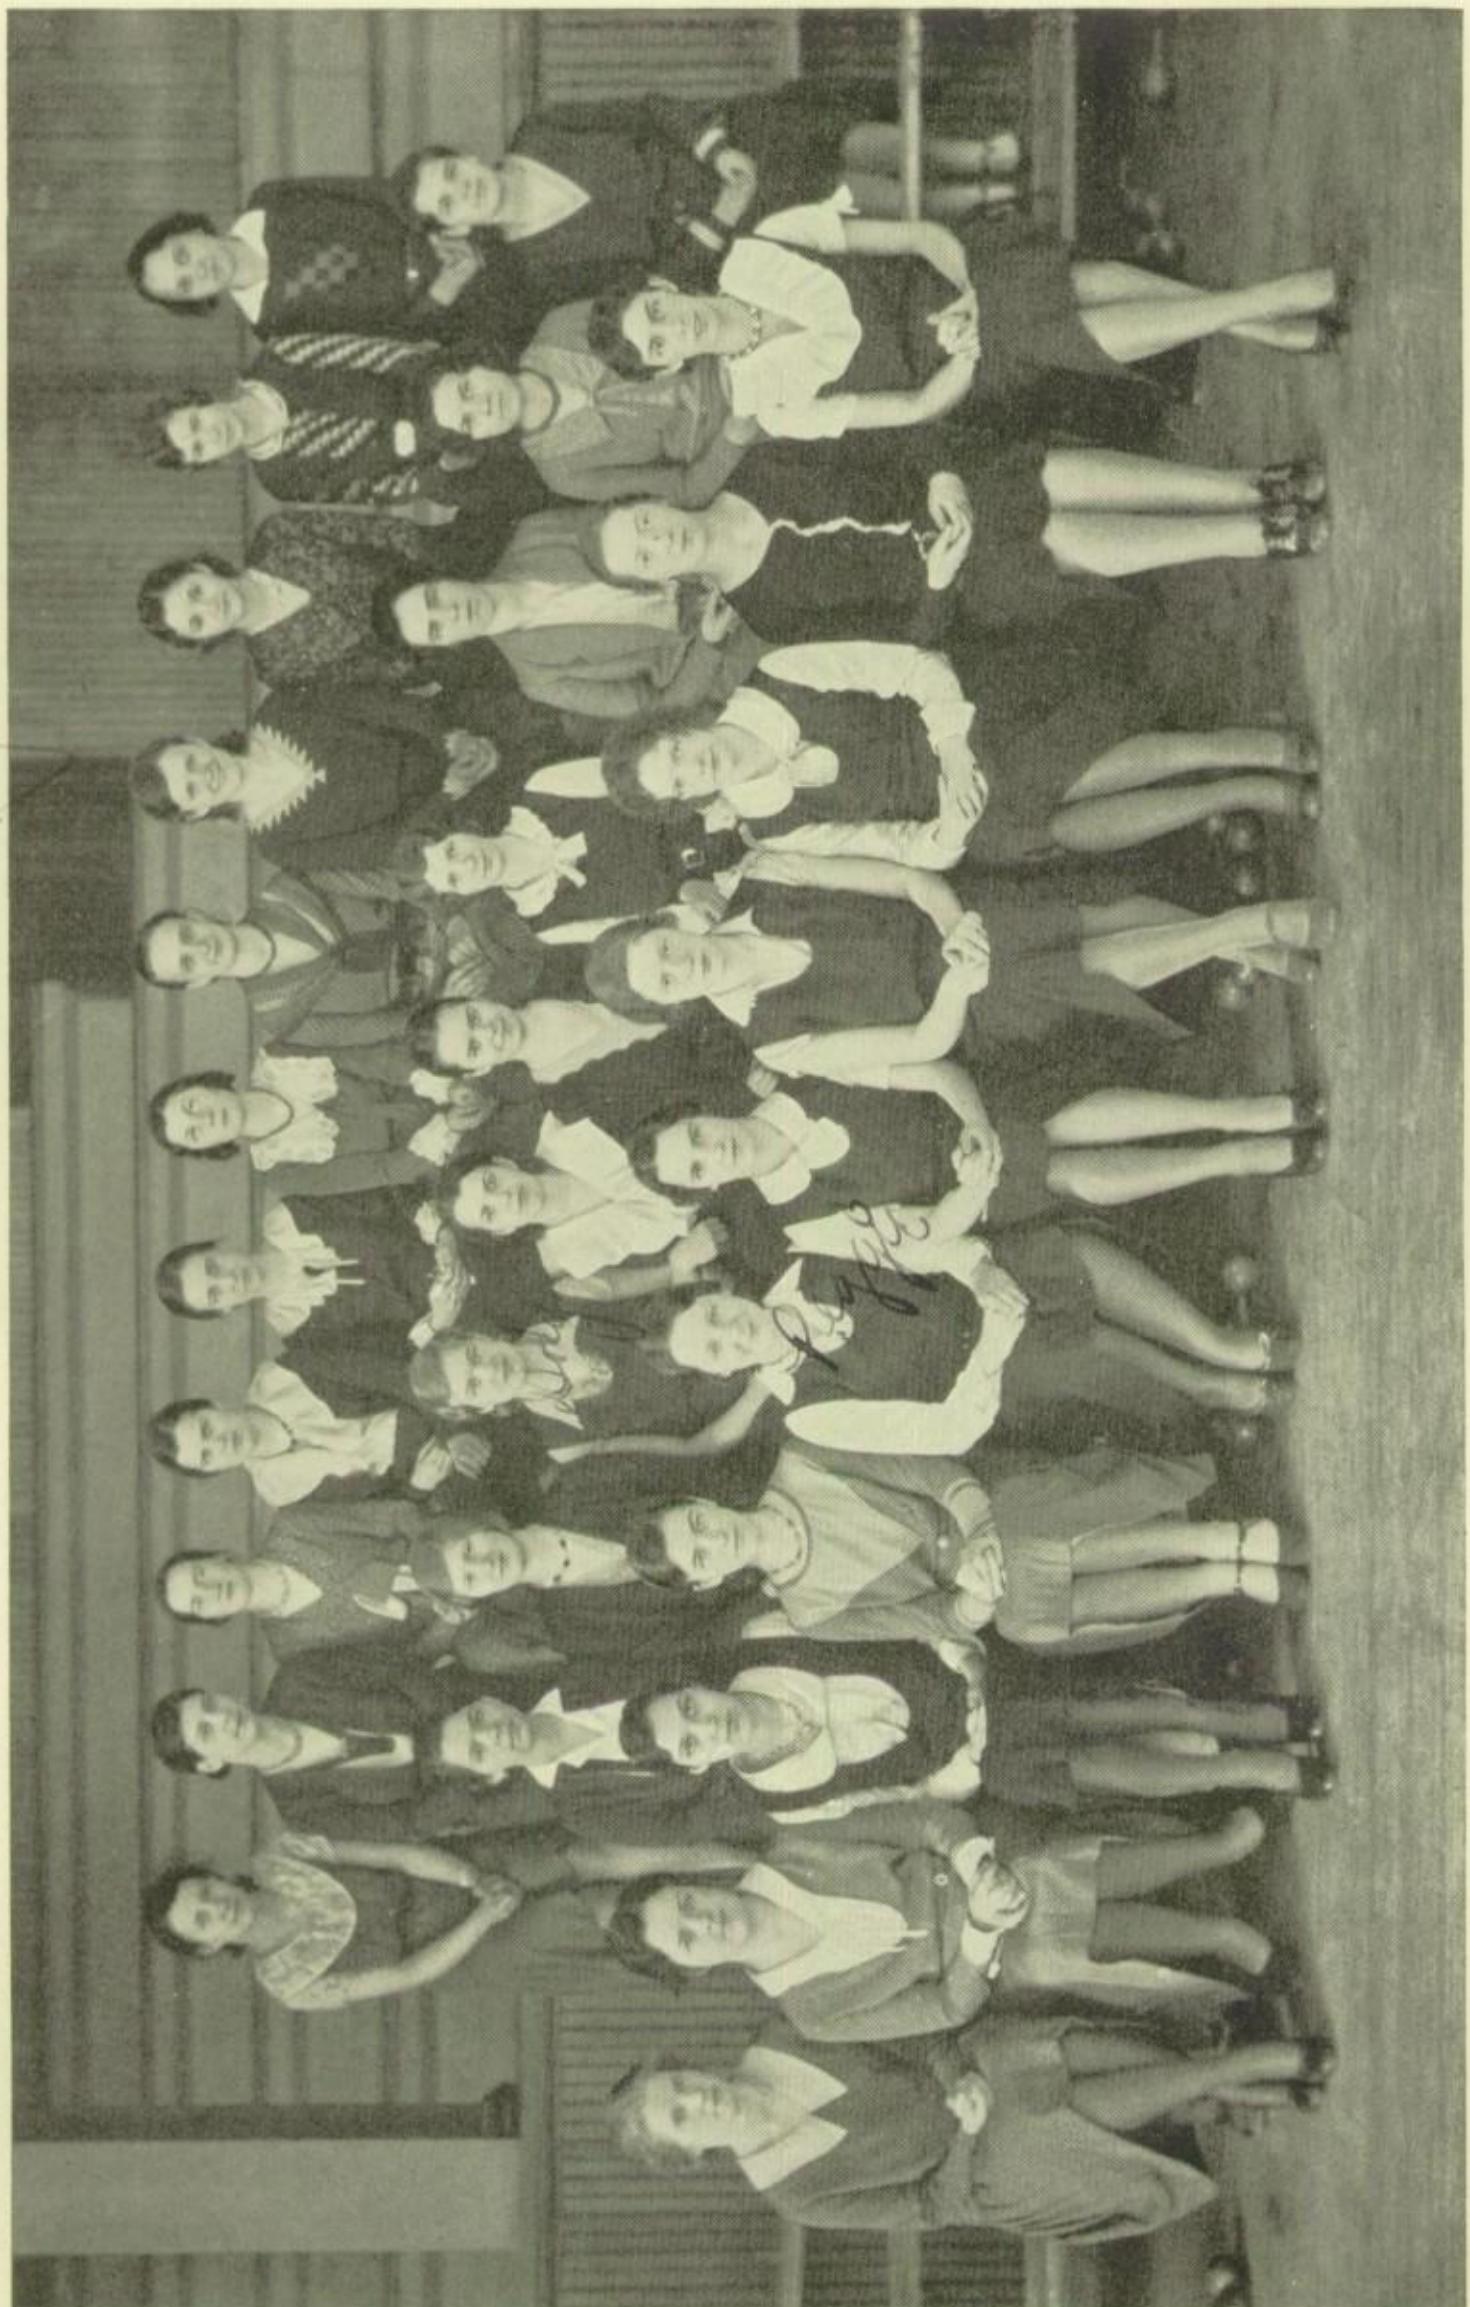

President Rapp and his associates must be thanked for their efforts in so successfully building such an attitude of respect among Bradford High's competitors. True, the influence is not so obvious among our own group of students, but to any visiting team it has a vital influence because all visiting teams are playing against odds, strange playing surface, few rooters from their home town, etc., but with an attitude of good fellowship and sportsmanship these attitudes of odds are considerably lessened.

The wish of this year's club is that every Senior member continue practicing the philosophy of our purpose to create, maintain, and extend throughout our natural life the highest standards of living — vital Christian living — among all whom we meet in the daily inter-relations with peoples in the vast workaday world.

The Hi-Y is very much indebted to Mr. St. Marie for the wonderful work the club has done in helping the members live up to their philosophic purpose.

GIRLS' LITERARY SOCIETY

Girls' Literary Society

The Girls' Literary Society was founded about 1914 and was the first girls club in the school. When founded it was composed entirely of the students of high scholastic standing taking the literary course, but at the present time girls of either course are eligible for membership.

The organization was at first purely social, and since the founding this principle has been continued to some extent; however, it was discovered that the social side of the life of the school was not strong enough to warrant the continuing of the club on that basis. Consequently, the club was converted into a service organization.

The definite aim of the G. L. S. is to help those students in school who are unable to pay their student activity fund.

This is the second year Mr. Schilling has had G. L. S. girls to assist in the office. Every period of the day a G. L. S. girl is in the office to answer the telephone and to meet the people when Mr. Schilling is not at hand.

Another object fulfilled during the year was raising enough money to send a Senior girl to Washington. This has been done by the G. L. S. and the Girls' Council together.

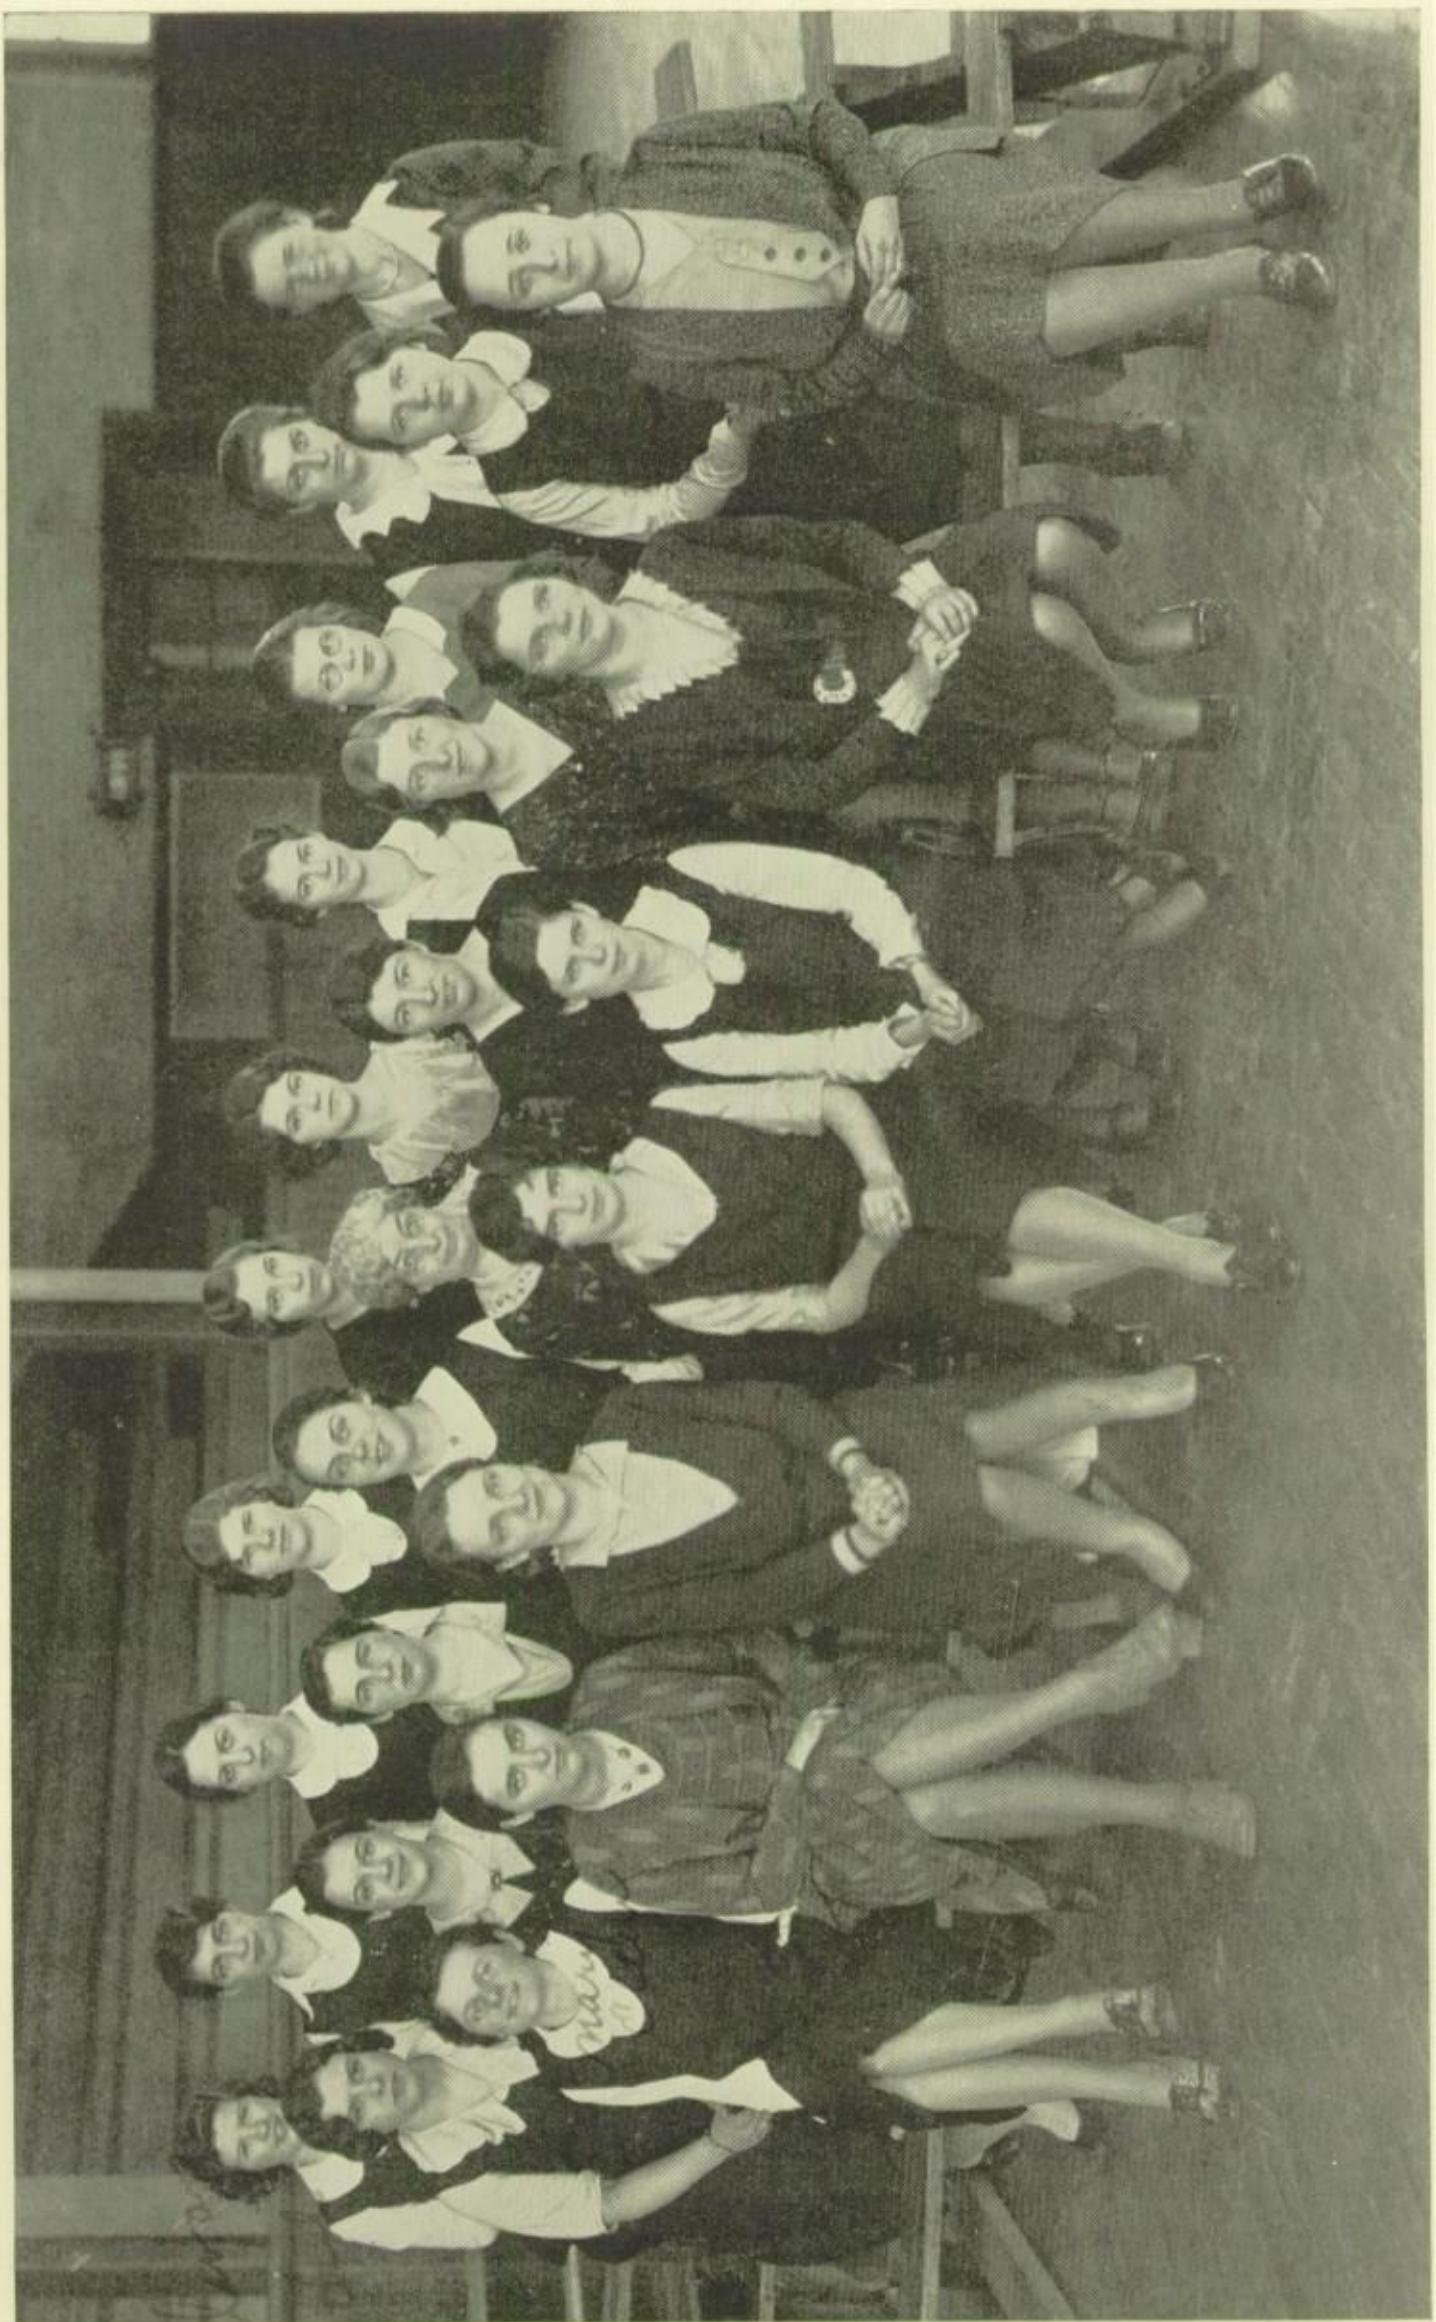

Last year we elected the following officers to lead in the work of this year.

We have been under the leadership of our new adviser, Miss Ruth Stewart. She has proved to be a great help to make this year's program successful.

The Girls' Council is one of the leading clubs of the school. It was founded eight years ago by Miss Blair, a member of the faculty at that time. Miss Royce is our adviser now, and we hope that future members will enjoy the Council as much as we have under her leadership. The Council of twenty-four girls stands for Loyalty, Truth and Friendship with Service as its motto. Room 3, the Council room, is always open to anyone who needs help or advice. Besides the service of Room 3, flowers or notes are sent to ill students.

Some of the activities of the Council are the following: It is a custom of the Council to give a "Get-Acquainted-Party" at the beginning of each year for the Sophomore girls. This year the party was a great success. Installation meeting for the new members was held in the gymnasium on November 11, 1930. This was in the form of a candle light service and was both beautiful and impressive. Another custom is to spread cheer by sending Thanksgiving baskets and Christmas orders of meat. Nine baskets of fruit and six orders of meat were given this year. At Christmas time both last year's members and present members met at a Council dinner held in the High School cafeteria. It was delightful to see the former Council members again. One of the new activities for the Council was made necessary on January 19, when for the Parent-Teachers' Association an evening session of school brought four hundred parents to visit. We were surely busy then directing anyone who required our service. During the last days of December the Council, through committees, was busily engaged in choosing a play and other numbers for their assembly program. Work soon began in earnest and the program was given February 6. In May "The Big-Sister Little-Sister Party" claimed our attention until the event occurred.

Once again the Council has had a successful year and we hope that it may ever maintain its motto, "Service."

Girl Reserves

The Girl Reserve Movement was first started in 1905 developing from an organization called the Young Ladies Association. In 1915 the Girls' Work Department was organized and in 1918 it received the name of Girl Reserves.

The Girl Reserve Movement was first started in Bradford in 1925 but was not very successful, the next attempt was made in 1927 when there were two Junior Triangles formed. In 1928 there were two Senior High Groups which combined to form one large club.

This year the work of the Girl Reserve has been varied. A party was held in the Senior High School in September for the faculty. The Senior High Group together with the Junior Group held a tea at the Y. M. C. A. in honor of two of our former advisers, Mrs. Seth Gustin and Mrs. Theodore Russell.

Each Month the girls have a swimming party at the "Y" pool. After our first swim the girls enjoyed a delicious tureen dinner.

The Hi-Y boys and the Girl Reserves entertained the Mt. Jewett Basketball teams in the early part of March.

Besides our social activities we also give a party every year, at Christmas, for children who might otherwise be forgotten. The girls also did service work for the hospital. Many discussions have been made during the year.

Our Girl Reserve assembly was held February 27. A play was presented, "Down Fido." Community singing was led by Belle Yampolski and Dorothy Dunham.

EL CIRCULO CASTELLANO

El Circulo Castellano

El Circulo Castellano numbering thirty members has had its most successful year during the school year 1930-31.

Last fall the following officers were elected for the year:

Every member in El Circulo Castellano has been active. The year has been especially prosperous and interesting.

There have been fine programs at each meeting including debates, Spanish topics, studies of Spanish customs and characteristics, plays given, and games played — all, of course, dealing with Spain and the Spanish.

Pins were purchased bearing the name of the club and year of graduation. Our meetings were held the second and fourth Thursday of every month. The fourth Friday of each month candy sales were held which were very successful.

A Spanish program was presented in the auditorium, January 9. The play, "Flowers for Flossie" and two episodes: that of the Windmill and that of the Inn from "Don Quixote" by Cervantes, were given.

A lovely, delightful, social evening was enjoyed by all the members, February 18, at the High School.

Floriculture Society

The sixth anniversary of the Floriculture Society was filled with numerous experiences and many happy memories will be carried away by its members.

Interesting meetings were held in discussing the various trees of our great nation, our study-subject for the year.

Our annual trip to the Eastman Nursery at Smethport was made early in October. In returning our visit, Miss Dorothy Eastman gave the Society a delightful discourse on the subject "Gardens I Have Known" and presented the school with a beautiful White Spruce tree which has been planted in the front lawn, reminding each of us of the kindness of the Eastmans.

At Hallowe'en and at Christmas the Floriculture joined with the two Commercial Clubs in parties. The success of these two occasions speaks for itself.

This year, as in previous years, our society has sold candy after school. One week's sale of candy was donated to the Red Cross Drought Fund. We wish to thank the various societies and the whole student body for their co-operation in this undertaking.

A multitude of other things were accomplished during the year. Among them were: the planting of tulips in the flower beds for the out-going Senior Class; the Christmas gift of a Japanese Dish Garden to the Library; decoration of our Club Room with plants and flowers brought by our adviser; plans made for the dedication of a George Washington Tree, the tree selected by a vote of the student body and to be planted and dedicated next year.

The main object of the Floriculture Society is in beautifying the school grounds and we feel that you will agree that, through the efforts of the Floriculture and the co-operation of the student body, Bradford High School grounds have been made a place of beauty for the student and the passer-by.

TYPEWRITING ACCURACY CLUB

Typewriting Accuracy Club

The Typewriting Accuracy Club of Bradford Senior High School was organized by Mrs. C. A. Ricker. The motto is "Accuracy first, last and always." Pupils taking first year typing become members of the club by writing thirty words a minute with five or less mistakes; those taking second year typing not yet members must write forty words with five or less errors in order to belong.

The meetings take place every third Monday in Room 24. The programs have consisted of plays, readings, and speed contests. Pupils have done work for the teachers, organizations, the Barker and Courant. Besides this extra work the students are expected to keep up their regular work in class.

The club gave a Hallowe'en Party which turned out to be a great success. A Christmas party was also given in Room 24, which was enjoyed by everyone present.

On January 23, a delightful play, entitled, "The Potter Pancake Co." was given by the Typewriting and Shorthand Clubs in assembly.

An initiation party will be held March 20th, at which time thirty-three new members will be taken in.

We are all looking forward to a Commercial Club banquet to be held in May.

HARLEQUIN CLUB

Harlequin Club

For many years interest in dramatics has been keen in our high school. Enthusiastic actors sought expression through the medium of class plays, assembly plays, and club programs — all this without much background or training.

Early in October, 1930, an announcement was made concerning the formation of a dramatic club under the supervision of Miss Mary Schilling. All candidates for such a club were given opportunity to try out. After over two hundred students had been given a trial, a group of thirty was selected as active members in the new organization. Of these thirty members, ten were to be Seniors, eight Juniors, and seven Sophomores. The remaining five places were to be filled by members of any of the three classes. This year these five places were all filled by Juniors. A group of twenty-two were placed on the reserve list because they were considered the next best of the contestants who tried out.

The club organized and chose the following officers:

| | |
|----------------|-----------------------|
| President | Ronald Aldrich |
| Vice President | Mirian Schubert |
| Secretary | Jeannette Reichenbach |
| Treasurer | Neil Gregory |

The name Harlequin Club was adopted and an appropriate pin was chosen.

During the year the club has enjoyed many helpful programs dealing with make-up, costuming and play production, including the acting and technique of the play. Three new members were added to take care of publicity, stage-managing and property managing. An assembly program was given.

The following are active members:

Cheerleading

A few weeks after the opening of school Coach Paige issued a call for candidates for cheerleading. Forty-five students responded, the largest number of students ever to try out for this branch of sports.

After a week of practice eleven students were chosen to lead cheers. Out of this number five will receive their letters.

Under the supervision of the cheerleaders, pep assemblies were held before all the games, not only for football but basketball games also. Dick O'Day and his orchestra along with Johnny Nelson, Sammy Leshner and Griffith Herold were frequent visitors at the school assemblies and offered varied programs, which were always very much appreciated by the school.

Besides pep assemblies in school, snake dances and bonfires were held through the downtown section.

ATHLETIC COUNCIL

Athletic Council

The Athletic Council has been an organization of this school for the past nine years. It was formed from the Boys' Athletic Association and one of the same idea for the girls, to settle all athletic questions for the school. The Athletic Council has been formed as a result of the Student Activity Fund.

The purpose of the council is, mainly, to elect the managers of all the different teams and to decide upon those entitled to wear the "B."

The Season

Football season for B. H. S. started with two weeks training at Silver Lake. The camp was a success under the supervision of Doc Hughes, physical director of Y. M. C. A. and coach Ford Ellenberger, a newly elected member of the B. H. S. teaching staff.

About seventy men responded to Coach Paige's call for football candidates. Of all the reported there were only two lettermen, those being Capt. George Wilcox and Jack Zillafro, but a number of former second team men also returned.

In spite of the fact that Coaches Paige and Ellenberger had an abundance of green material to work with they developed a fighting team that managed to win four and tie one out of ten games. Losing to Allegany, Port Allegany, Erie Academy, Tonawanda, and Olean and winning the Little Valley, Brockway, Smethport, Galeton and tied Kane.

In addition to the regular varsity much reserve material was rounded into shape to provide material for a coming season. This will give the coaches, players for the coming season with some experience. Joe Smith, who became an assistant coach late in the season handled the reserves.

There were seventeen lettermen this season and only six are graduating, Wilcox, Zillafro, Pecora, Warren, Witchen, and Weimer.

B. H. S., 12 — LITTLE VALLEY, 0

The Red and Black defeated Little Valley in the opening game of a scholastic competition. To Dale Walters must be given the honor to score the first touchdown. George Wilcox scored the other touchdown in the last quarter. Although being a blue day for Little Valley they did not lack the courage which makes a winning team.

B. H. S., 6 — ALLEGANY, 18

An experienced Allegany team handed the Red and Black their first defeat. Allegany made all their three touchdowns in the first half. Our only touchdown occurred during the last few minutes of play when Dale Walters threw a beautiful pass to George Wilcox thus gaining 40 yards and a touchdown.

B. H. S., 84 — BROCKWAY, 6

The entire team seemed to be in tiptop form when they defeated the Brockway eleven 84 to 6. The Brockway team was rather handicapped because of light material. B. H. S. team started in the first few minutes of play and continued their terrible drives through the game. The entire squad played, but much credit is due to the back field, particularly Glenn Witchen, for the many line plunges which brought in six touchdowns.

B. H. S., 13 — PORT ALLEGANY, 26

Port scored their entire 26 points during the first half. The second half B. H. S. outplayed Port Allegany. Two beautiful passes were completed, which brought in our only 13 points. One was passed from Walters to Wilcox, the other from Witchen to Piper.

B. H. S., 0 — KANE 0

The largest crowd of the season turned out to watch the Wolves and B. H. S. battle to a scoreless tie. The local players seemed to be on their way twice for a touchdown but were stopped by the visitors. The lines of both teams featured throughout the game. Witchen tossed a forty yard pass and was missed by a narrow margin thus B. H. S. lost its big chance.

Zillafro and Sinclair were the outstanding players in the forward wall. The game was broadcasted, play by play, to the spectators through the courtesy of John Nelson, sport editor of the Era.

B. H. S., 0 — ACADEMY, 55

A mighty football team representing Erie Academy stopped in Bradford to defeat the Red and Black 55 to 0.

Bradford held the visitors to thirteen points during the first half but weakened when the end drew near. The fife and drum corp brought by Erie Academy entertained before the game and between the halves.

B. H. S., 32 — SMETHPORT, 0

Bradford won its third game of the season by defeating Smethport 32-0.

Soon after the game started Walters intercepted a pass and raced fifty yards for a touchdown. In a very short time another six points was made and Coach Ellenberger sent in the entire second team after seven minutes of play. The second team scored three touchdowns and an extra point before the half ended.

In the second half Smethport held Bradford scoreless but failed to score a touchdown for themselves.

B. H. S., 0 — TONAWANDA, 21

Bradford put up a hard fight but was defeated 21-0. This is one of the games by which the score tells nothing for B. H. S. outplayed them the entire game. Three times Bradford had the ball on Tonawanda's four, eight and ten yard lines but could not score. Many passes were completed by Piper and Wilcox. Aided by heavy line and fast backfield Tonawanda scored three times.

B. H. S., 13 — GALETON, 12

This was the closest game of the season. Trailing at the half 12-0 favor of Galetton. The Bradford clan went back determined to tear the Galetton team to shreds. After four first downs Witchen ran eighteen yards for a touchdown, he also made the extra point. In the last few minutes of play Bradford fumbled on the twenty yard line but they held for downs. In the first play Witchen made ten yards, Walters and Warren made several gains and Witchen carried the ball on the last down. They failed to make the extra point. The line must be given much credit for the wonderful openings made in the Galetton line.

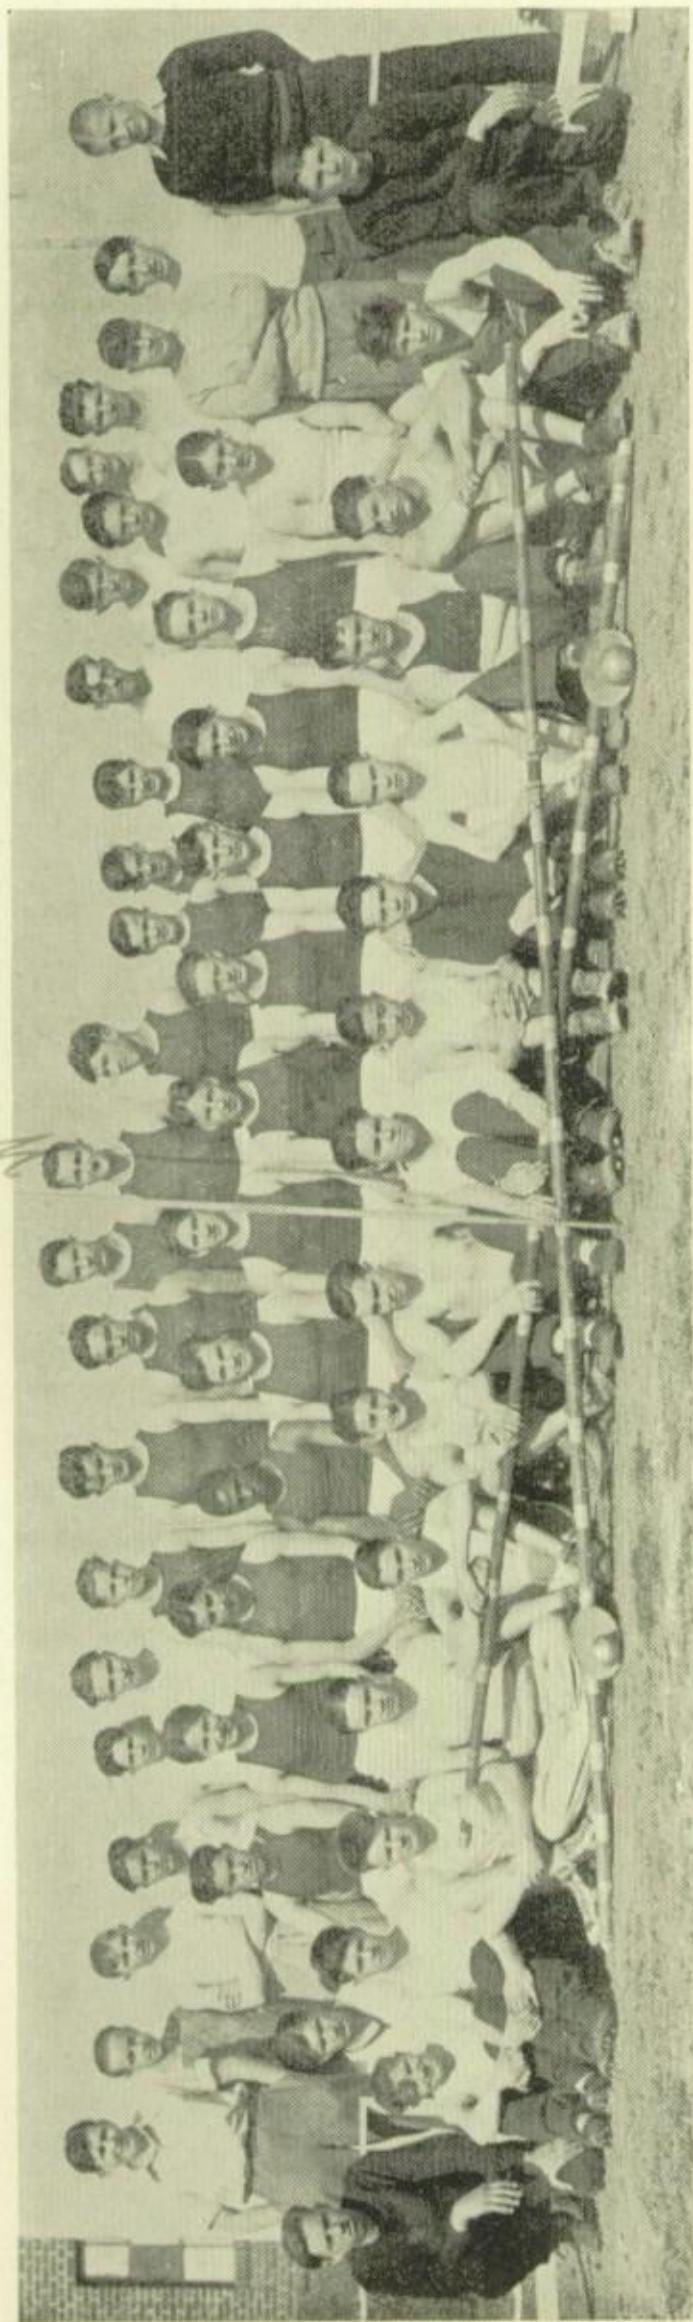

B. H. S., 0 — OLEAN, 31

Turkey Day, Olean took Bradford for a ride. Bradford held them scoreless during the first quarter. In the second quarter Olean rushed over the Bradford lines. There was not much action in the third quarter, partly due to the very cold and icy condition of the field. The fourth quarter Olean continued their heavy barrage. Much credit must be given to Bradford as a whole who battled in vain against the tremendous odds of the day.

For Bradford Captain George Wilcox stood true to his form and played a winning game.

We are very much indebted to Sam Leshner who keeps young by remembering his happy high school days and by realizing the importance of spurring youth on to victory.

TRACK TEAM

Track

Sixty candidates reported for track. They faced a schedule of ten meets, including the Interscholastics at Alfred University, the District Championship and State Championship. This is the most difficult schedule ever attempted at Bradford High.

There are only three letter men from last year's winning team, Captain Vance Koehler, Bill Benning and George Wilcox. Even so the team has started off in great shape with four straight wins and no defeats.

GYM TEAM

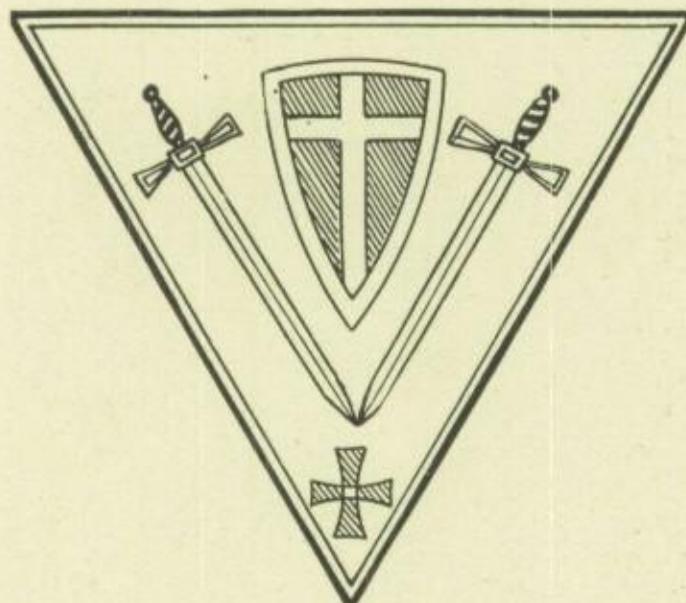

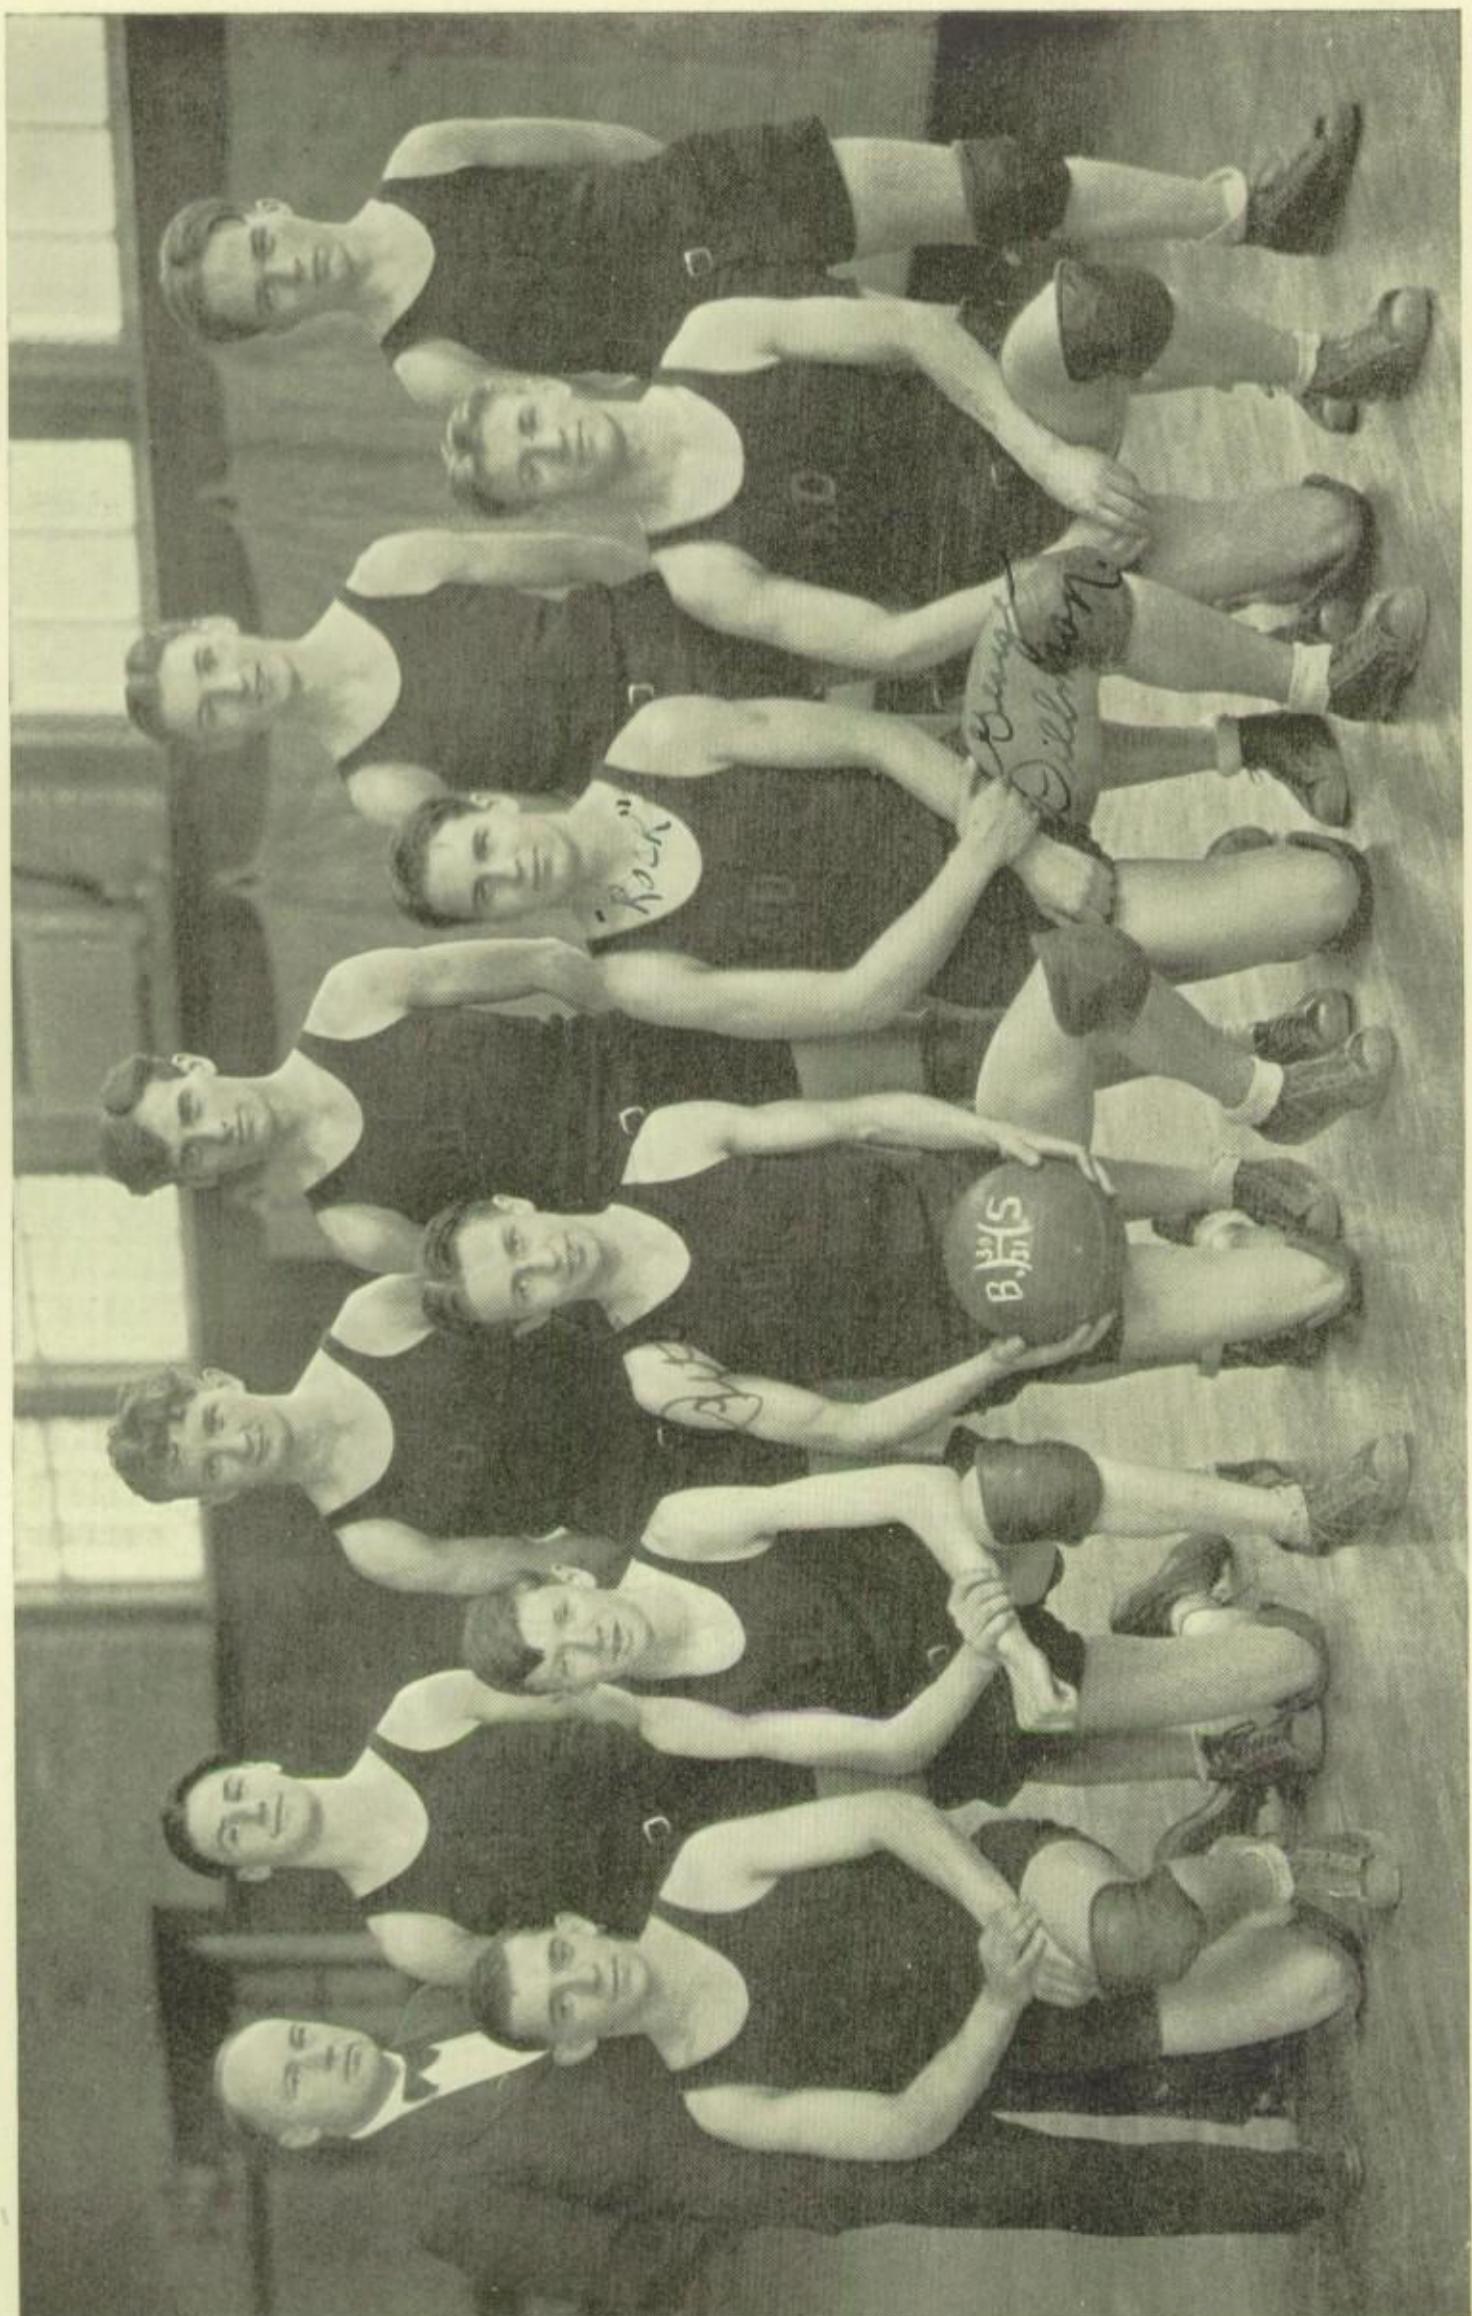

Gym Team

The Gym Team was organized by Coach Paige in 1927 as a Leader Corps. The organization has improved each year. The present gym team is a real organization of about twenty-five boys who are primarily interested in all types of gym work and all phases of Physical Education.

The team is composed of the following:

| | | |
|----------------|---------------|------------------|
| Max Irish | Jim Burns | Robert Blessing |
| Gerald Kelly | Joe Rhone | Herbert Peterson |

The Season

About fifty candidates responded to Coach Paige's call for basketball. George Wilcox was the only letter man to return from last year's squad. There was not much experienced material to choose from. Coach Paige managed to get five players together that remained at the top of the league of Section Seven until the last game. Raymond Norton a large factor in the team was taken sick and died on the morning of the last game which was played at St. Marys. We sincerely believe that if it had not been for the death of Raymond we would have won the league.

The team won twenty and lost seven games. Only three of the games lost were league games.

Captain Peterson, Wilcox, Ray Norton, Dillman, Witchen, Burns, Whitney, Shaw, Sculley, Figler, and Beere constituted the first team.

ALUMNI, 17 — B. H. S., 15

The Alumni defeated the Red and Black cagers in the first game of the season. The experience of the Alumni players was the main cause for the defeat. Wilcox scored eight points for the High School.

LITTLE VALLEY, 13 — B. H. S., 23

The Red and Black basketeers showed an all together different style of ball and downed the team from the Hub village.

SPEEDS, 22 — B. H. S., 26

The Speeds, a team made up of almost the same team as the Alumni team were greatly surprised when they were stopped by the smooth working Paigers.

EMPORIUM, 13 — B. H. S., 23

The Clan Paige won their first league game by dumping the new member of the league.

RIDGWAY, 17 — B. H. S., 22

It was the first time that Bradford had defeated a Ridgway team at Ridgway in six years. Bradford led through almost all of the game. Wilcox and Witchen made baskets in the last three minutes to put the game on ice.

JOHNSONBURG, 27 — B. H. S., 29

The under rated Johnsonburg team almost upset the Clan. It was a close score throughout the entire game with Bradford leading most of the time.

LUDLOW, 16 — B. H. S., 26

The local cagers kept their slate clean by defeating the Ludlow Giants down at Ludlow in their telephone booth.

SHEFFIELD, 26 — B. H. S., 16

The hopes of the Red and Black took a slight drop when they were defeated by the veteran Wolverines. There seemed to be covers on the baskets for the locals. Peterson and Dillman played well..

The American Legion Drum Corps accompanied the team.

ALLEGANY, 16 — B. H. S., 20

The Red and Black and Allegany broke even. Bradford winning at Allegany and Allegany winning here.

Athletic relations were broken off with Allegany due to a disagreement.

PUNXSUTAWNEY, 13 — B. H. S., 12

Dillman made a technical foul after the time was up which decided the game. Both teams were off form.

Howard Schilling is coach of the Punxy team.

MT. JEWETT, 21 — B. H. S., 43

The locals showed their best form in the Mt. Jewett game at Mt. Jewett. They had excellent pass work and a good eye for the basket. Norton, Peterson, and Wilcox played best for the locals.

ST. MARYS, 20 — B. H. S., 25

The Flying Dutchmen received their first defeat in Section Seven at the hands of the Red and Black. The Red and Black cagers led most of the game. Norton had ten points for Bradford.

OLEAN, 24 — B. H. S., 21

The ancient rivals of the House of the Red and Black took a close game from Bradford. It went into an extra period. Three games in one week proved too much.

KANE, 17 — B. H. S., 30

Playing way off their usual form Bradford Hi defeated Kane at Kane after trailing through the first half. Norton was the big gun for Bradford.

EMPORIUM, 19 — B. H. S., 24

Still way off form, the Red and Black were forced to the limit to defeat Emporium at Emporium. Donavan the high scorer of the league made baskets from all angles and made things unusually distasteful to the Red and Black.

RIDGWAY, 26 — B. H. S., 20

The strong Ridgway Elks downed Bradford Hi after a long uphill battle on the local floor. Dillman and Peterson stood out for Bradford.

JOHNSONBURG, 21 — B. H. S., 35

Ray Norton's last game for B. H. S. was destined to be his greatest, scoring eleven points and playing a great defensive game. He alone led Bradford to victory.

LUDLOW, 17 — B. H. S., 26

Playing without the services of their regular center, Norton, Bradford had a hard time downing Ludlow. Figler starred for Bradford. Whitney and Sculley took Norton's place.

PUNXSUTAWNEY, 28 — B. H. S., 15

After leading the Chucks for almost three periods Bradford Hi dropped an indoor football game to Punxsy. Wilcox and Sculley led the scoring for the Clan.

SHEFFIELD, 22 — B. H. S., 30

The Clan Paige clearly out played Sheffield at all stages of the game and the outcome was never in doubt. The whole team worked as one single unit. Harry Sculley played a leading roll for the locals.

MT. JEWETT, 6 — B. H. S., 19

The Red and Black cagers defeated Mt. Jewett in a very slow affair. Jewett was content to hold the ball in the back court while the locals held their strong defense.

OLEAN, 19 — B. H. S., 17

Again Nick Rodgers broke up a Bradford-Olean game scoring a basket from mid-court with three seconds left to play.

ST. MARYS, 28 — B. H. S., 20

Playing under a terrific series of handicaps, Bradford lost to St. Marys after leading at the half. The team lost out in the last quarter. Wilcox led the attack.

KANE, 15 — B. H. S., 42

The team was in tip top form and they dumped the Wolves without much trouble. Warner Whitney scored nine points.

Every player on both teams got a chance to play.

The Season

Although the girls' basketball team did not have so many victories this year, it played very hard and did its best to make B. H. S. proud of it. There were only two varsity girls left from last year's team but toward the end of the season the team had improved one hundred per cent due to Miss Stewart's excellent coaching and the fine co-operation of the team.

BRADFORD, 13 — EMPORIUM, 23

The team lost its first game to the fast and experienced Emporium girls. O'Neil played a very good game scoring twelve points out of the thirteen points made..

BRADFORD, 24 — SALAMANCA, 4

After practicing hard for a week the Red and Black peped up and scored a victory over the Sallie lassies. Helen Landin going in for her first game played very well making six points in one quarter.

BRADFORD, 24 — PORTVILLE, 28

Our first game away we played Portville. Expecting an easy victory, we were greatly surprised when Portville came out four points in the lead. Donna Peebles played a snappy game at side center.

BRADFORD, 30 — MT. JEWETT, 14

The fourth game we played at Mt. Jewett. Due to the excellent playing of the team we won another game, Marion O'Meara being the star of the game.

BRADFORD, 16 — EMPORIUM, 48

Our next game was played on the Emporium court. Two of our best players were too ill to play and the opposite team had an easy victory. Keen starred at forward.

BRADFORD, 13 — SALAMANCA, 21

Our second game with Salamanca ended with another defeat added to our list. At the end of the first half B. H. S. was two points in the lead but during the last half Salamanca picked up and won by four baskets. Katherine Rice played a very good game.

BRADFORD, 31 — MT. JEWETT, 11

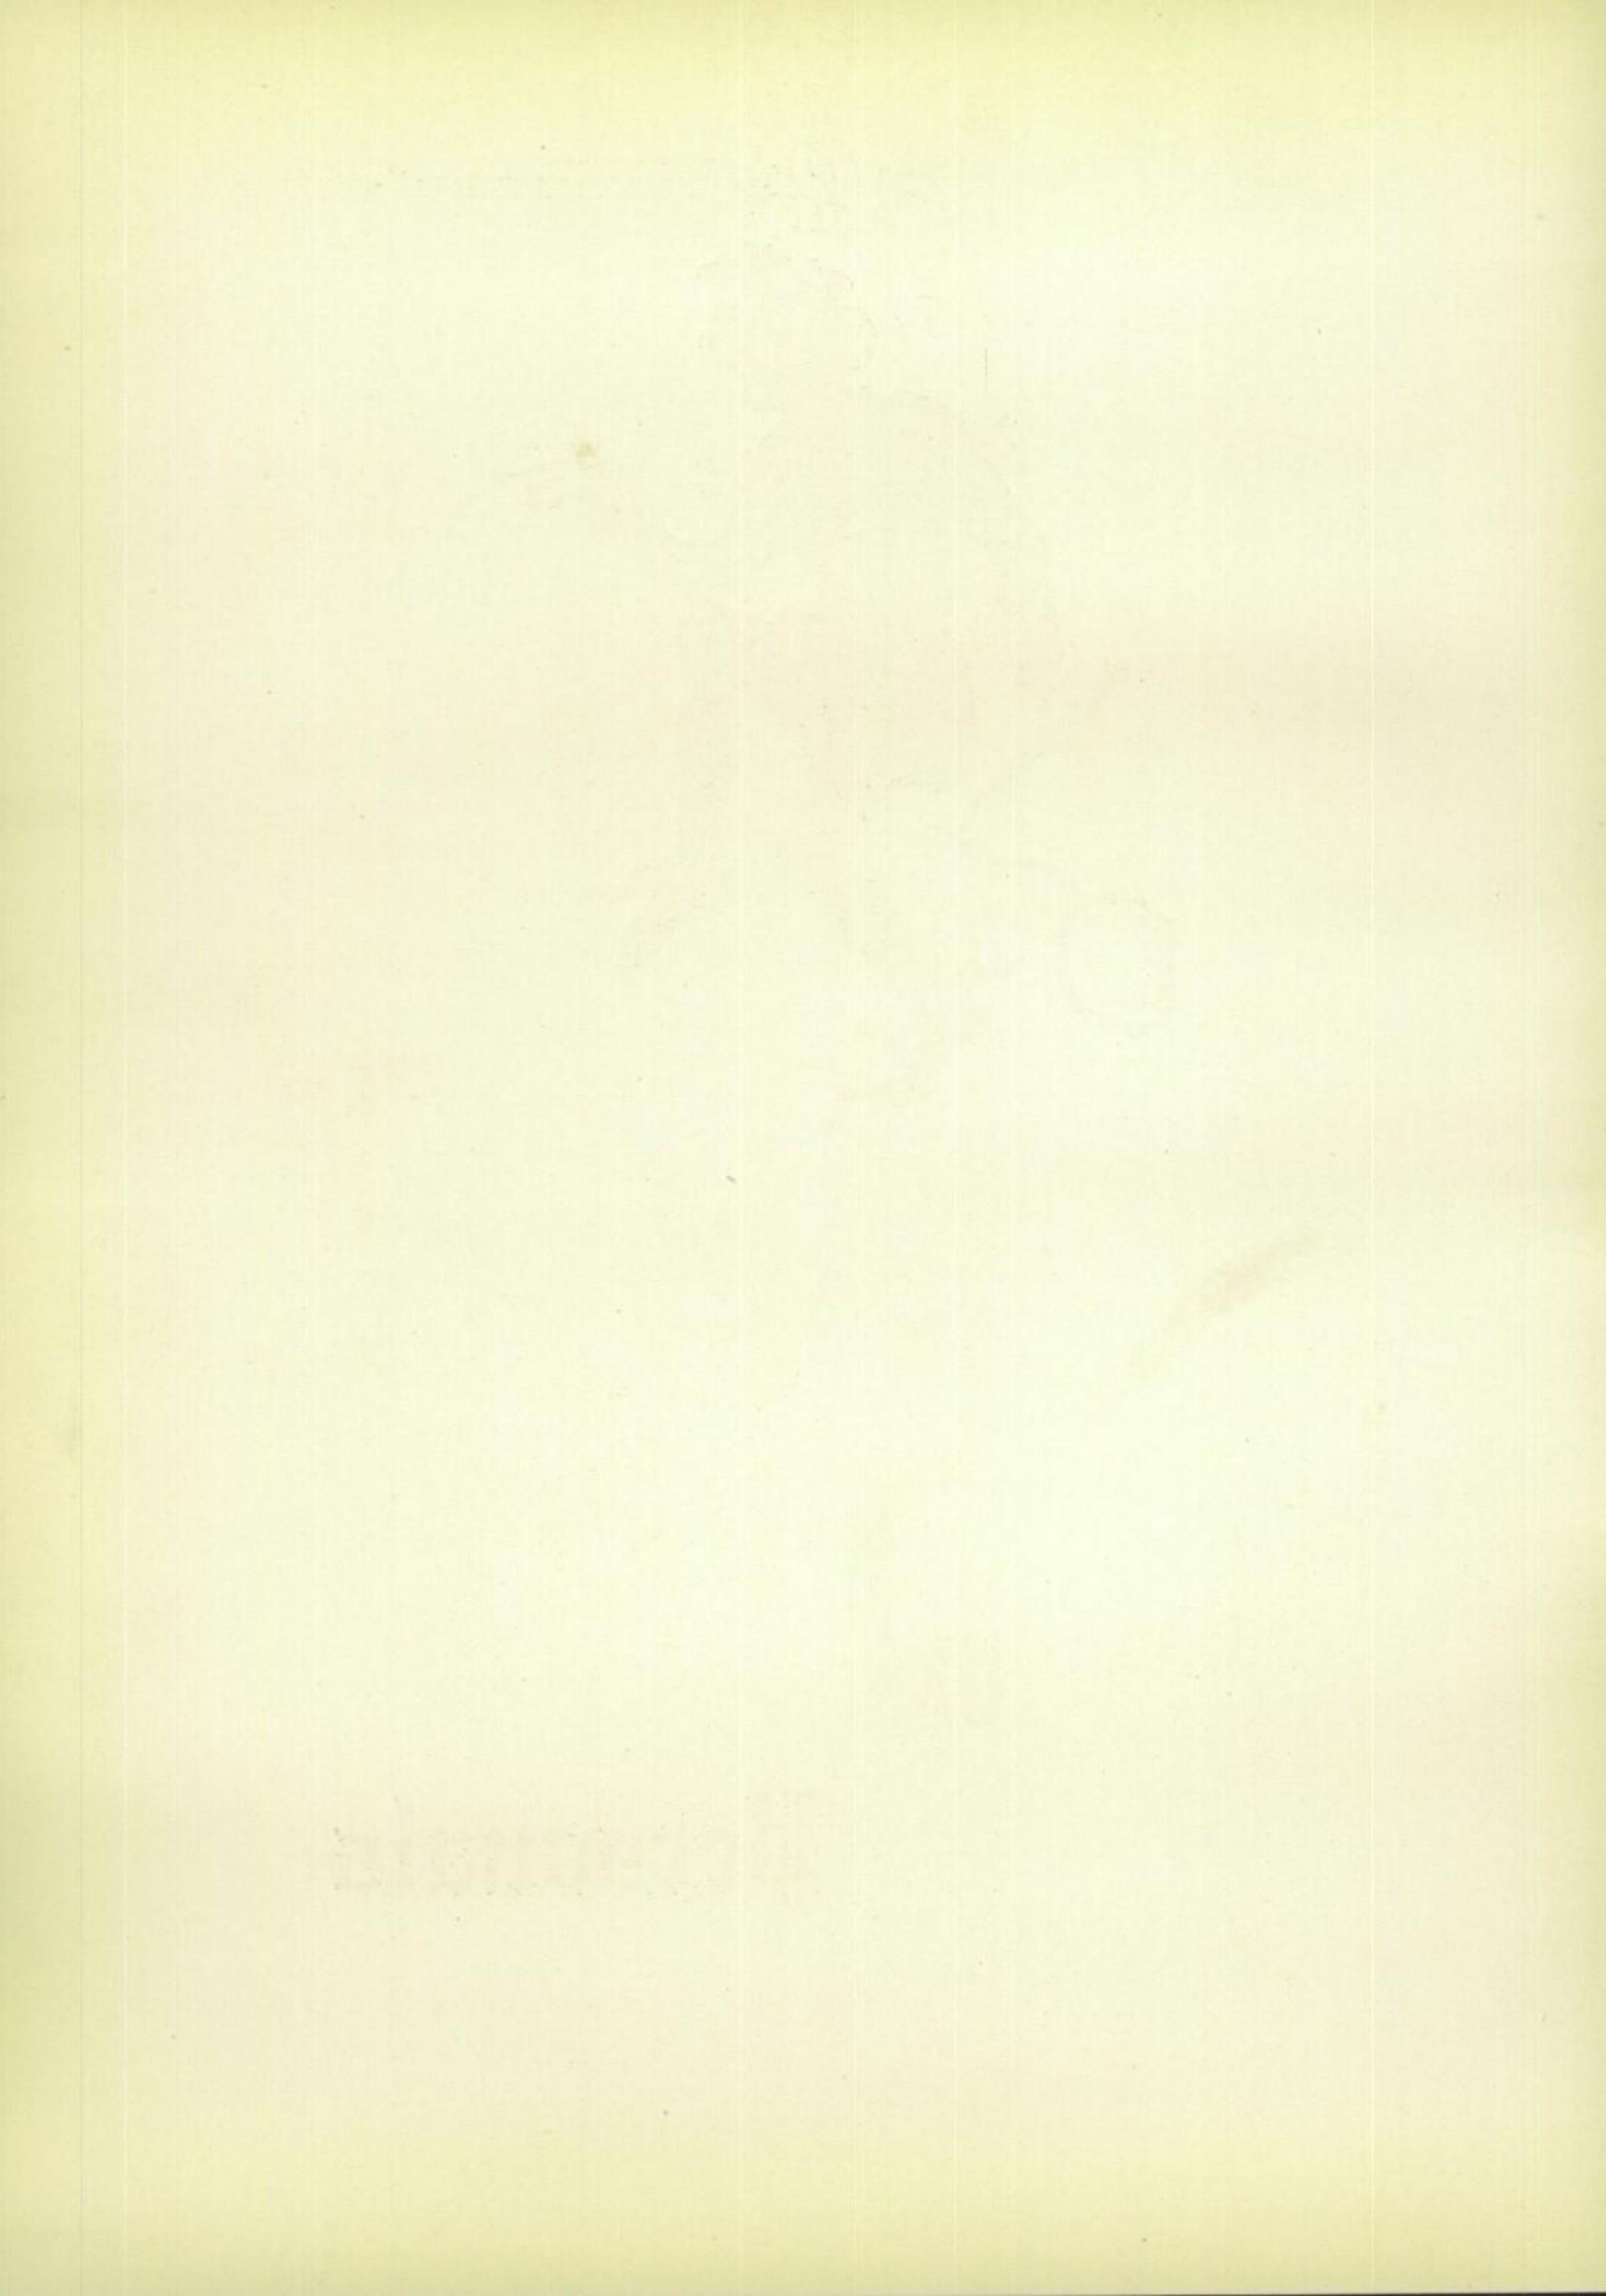

The B. H. S. played their last game with Mt. Jewett with Ethel King as the outstanding star.

EXTRA GAMES

As practice games and outside of our regular schedule, the Red and Black played the Y. W. C. A. and the Catholic Girls' Club. The Second Team also played the Y. W. C. A. Second Team.

A Senior rushed to the depot
The train was an hour late
The train man made a special
So the Senior wouldn't have to wait.

We were standing by a race track,
The cars were coming fast,
But when the Senior came in view,
They stopped to let her pass.

Some Seniors went to Shea's one night
The play was sad and sober,
But just because they came in late,
They did the act all over.

"What every Bradford High School student needs is an unbreakable father."

Ronny—"Meet me at the corner tonight at 8:00 o'clock."

Sam—"O. K. What time will you be there?"

Gin—"Did you fill your date last night?"

Issy—"I hope so. He ate everything in sight."

Teacher—"Now Peebles, tell me which month has twenty-eight days."

Peebles—"They all have, teacher."

Mr. Ricker, in restaurant—"Never mind my order. I can't eat where there's a smell of paint."

Waiter—"If you'll wait a minute, sir, those two young ladies will be going."

M. Seyfang—"You're too conceited about your looks."

Wardie Wilcox—"Not at all. I don't think I'm half as good-looking as I am."

Lucy Vecellio—"I believe in free speech."

E. Ottoson—"Sure, because nobody would pay to hear you."

"Alice is going in for aviation, I believe."

"Oh, she goes up in the air at everything."

Miss Fisher—"What did Ceasar say when Brutus stabbed him?"

Doris Anderson—"Ouch!"

Max Warren—"So you thought up this practical joke yourself?"

E. Welch—"Yep, out of my own head."

Warren—"You must be!"

Jean Stewart—"You know, I think this school is haunted."

Jack Bauer—"Why?"

Jean—"They are always talking about school spirit."

"A man wrapped up in himself makes a very small package."

"George Harden is spoiled, isn't he?"

"Why no, that's Isabel's 'Evening in Paris.'"

Bob Hannum—"Teacher's Pet!"

Frank McCarthy—"No, do they?"

Christine Bauer—"Why does a car smoke?"

B. Yampolski—"Because it can't chew."

Bill O'Day—"Hey, Bud, wake up!"

Crump—"I can't."

O'Day—"Why can't you?"

Crump—"Cause I ain't asleep."

J. Bauer—"What is a paradox?"

K. Ludwig—"Two wharves."

A goat ate all our other jokes,
And then began to run;
"I cannot stop," he softly said,
"I am so full of fun."

Ducky M.—"Why does a giraffe have such a long neck?"

Tom Johnson—"Because his head is so far from the ground."

Miss Schilling (to room in uproar)—
"What's the cause of all this noise?"

Bill Hahn—"Oh, a mouse."

Miss Schilling—"Now don't be smart.
A mouse couldn't make all that noise."

Teacher—"What is the name of the teeth we get last?"

Chuck Hall—"False teeth."

Bruce McKittrick—"A fellow just told me I looked like you."

Charles Stokes—"Where is he? I'd like to knock his block off."

McKittrick—"I just killed him."

Harry Sculley—"I've a cold in my head."

Glenn Witchen—"Well, that's something."

Jane Paton—"It took eight sittings."

Jesse Maitland—"What? Have you been having your portrait painted?"

Jane—"No, learning to skate."

The Failure

Have you ever heard of the town of Yawn,
On the banks of the River Slow,
Where blossoms the Waitawhile flower fair,
Where the Sometimeorother scents the air,
And the soft Goeasies grow?

It lies in the Valley of What'stheuse,
In the Province of Letherslide,
That tired feeling is native there;
It's the home of the listless Idon'tcare,
Where the Putitoffs abide.

This town is as old as the human race,
And it grows with the flight of years,
It is wrapped in the fog of idlers' dreams,
It's streets are paved with discarded schemes,
And sprinkled with useless tears.

Dr. McCutcheon had almost succeeded in dismissing his talkative patient when she stopped in the doorway.

Evelyn—"Why, doctor, you didn't look to see if my tongue was coated."

Dr. McCutcheon—(wearily) "I know it isn't, you never find grass on a racetrack."

Mr. Cunningham—"What did you and Wardie talk about last night?"

Marie—"Oh, we talked about kith and kin."

Small brother Jack—"Yeth, pop, I heard
'um. He seth, kin I have a kith, and she seth, yeth you kin."

Mary Sorrentino—"What can I do for chapped lips?"

Dr. Paton—"Eat plenty of onions."

Mary—"Onions?"

Dr. Paton—"Yes, that will keep the chaps off your lips."

Bob Hannum—"Want to go to the Senior dance?"

Mildred Seyfang—"Sure, I'd love to."

Bob—"I'm selling tickets, buy one?"

Jane Stover—"Are you going to the Junior Prom?"

Betty Bird—"No, that's for kids. I'm going to wait and go to the Senior Ball."

Roberta Beach—"What must one do to have beautiful hands?"

June Hess—"Nothing."

Mr. Smith—"Give me 22 double 2."

Jack Zillafro—"2222."

Smith—"Hurry up and I'll play train with you later."

Jean Edwards—"You say you flunked in Solid, why I can't understand."

John Bryner—"Same here, that's why I flunked."

Yerdon—"Well, I have one good mark, anyway."

Read—"What, chemistry?"

Yerdon—"No, vaccination."

Miss Harper—"What were you talking about in class this morning?"

Betty Dunne—"Isn't that funny, Mother said I talked in my sleep, too."

Jack Shuman—"Zilly has a new siren for his car."

Wilcox—"Really? What became of the blonde one?"

Hubbard—"God, I'd like a new fur coat."

Lawry—"Say, you don't care who you gold dig, do you?"

Rapp—"Is she dumb? Why, once I took her out and —"

Lane—"She went out with you! Evidence sufficient."

Dot Dunham—"Someone has stolen my car."

Cop—"These antique collectors will stop at nothing."

Advice to the Rising Generation—"Don't think you're famous when you're only attracting attention."

Marie—"And when we're married you won't come home and growl about the meals."

Wardie—"No, dear, we'll dine exclusively at the restaurants, (as long as our money holds out) and then we can both growl about the meals."

TO ADVERTISERS

It is through your advertisements that we are able to publish our Year Book. This book is one of the most treasured possessions we shall have in remembering dear old Alma Mater and the advertisers. We sincerely hope that these advertisements will prove to be of great value to you. Best wishes and great prosperity for the coming years.

Respectfully yours,
